J. How, 2004 Covers major battles between the British Canadian and German forces primarily SS Panzer units for Caen in June July 1944 Details the Battle for Hill 112 a crucial piece of terrain in which to gain control of Normandy In Good Faith Friedrich Husemann, 2009 Hot Motors, Cold Feet Helmut Günther, 2004

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 The German 10th Panzer Division and the Battles of Russia and North Africa Albert Schick, 2026-03-30 Following on from the author's previous published account of the 10th Panzer Division this unit history continues the study of its battles now moving to Russia in 1941 and later to North Africa Having seen significant combat in first Poland and then France the division was sent east once again this time to participate in Operation Barbarossa After its initial battles against the Red Army including the drive on Moscow in December of 1941 as part of the panzer force assigned to Army Group Center the division was withdrawn from Russia and refitted in France during 1942 It was stationed near Dieppe when the ill fated raid occurred in August 1942 though it had little direct involvement Once rebuilt instead of returning to the Eastern Front at the end of November 1942 it was sent to Tunisia to oppose Operation Torch the Allied landings in North Africa Arriving piecemeal it fought in Tunisia against both US and British armies until the German forces there surrendered in May 1943 For reasons never fully explained the 10 Panzer Division was not re established and so its impressive history ended prematurely with its last battle of note taking place at Kasserine Pass As with the companion volume this account includes both command level descriptions of the movements and fighting of the division's panzers as well as personal small unit accounts Panzers East and West Dieter Stenger, 2017-09-01 Organized and trained during 1943 the 10th SS Panzer Division saw its first action in the spring of 1944 during the relief of an encircled German army on the Eastern Front. Several months later in response to the Allied invasion at Normandy the division returned to the West in mid June 1944. Here the division engaged in a series of armored attacks and counterattacks against British and American forces. The 10th SS briefly held off a few enemy thrusts but gradually had to fall back to Falaise where the division escaped the Allied encirclement with no tanks and only a fraction of its men. The 10th SS Panzer Division next defended against the Allied parachute assault during Operation Market Garden in September 1944. Depleted and now a division in name only the 10th SS fought in Alsace before Hitler sent it to the Eastern Front again. There east of Berlin the division participated in the final battles to enable the escape of German soldiers and civilians from Soviet captivity.
