Forging Urban Solidarities Charles L. Wilkins,2010 As with most empires of the Early Modern period 1500-1800 the Ottomans mobilized human and material resources for war-making on a scale that was vast and unprecedented The present volume examines the direct and indirect effects of war-making on Aleppo an important Ottoman administrative center and Levantine trading city as the empire engaged in multiple conflicts including wars with Venice 1644-69 Poland 1672-76 and the Hapsburg Empire 1663-64 1683-99 Focusing on urban institutions such as residential quarters military garrisons and guilds and using intensively the records of local law courts the study explores how the routinization of direct imperial taxes and the assimilation of soldiers to civilian life challenged and reshaped the city's social and political order Jews, Turks, and Ottomans Avigdor Levy,2002-11-01 This book focuses on central topics such as the structure of the Jewish community its organization and institutions and its relations with the state the place Jews occupied in the Ottoman economy and their interactions with the general society Jewish scholarship and its contribution to Ottoman and Turkish culture science and medicine Written by leading scholars from Israel Turkey Europe and the United States these pieces present an unusually broad historical canvas that brings together different perspectives and viewpoints The book is a major original contribution to Jewish history as well as to Turkish Balkan and Middle East studies Urban Governance Under the Ottomans Ulrike Freitag,Nora Lafi,2014-06-27 Urban Governance Under the Ottomans focuses on one of the most pressing topics in this field namely the question why cities formerly known for their multiethnic and multi religious composition became increasingly marked by conflict in the 19th century This collection of essays represents the result of an intense process of discussion among many of the authors who have been invited to combine theoretical considerations on the question sketched above with concrete case studies based upon original archival research From Istanbul to Aleppo and from the Balkans to Jerusalem what emerges from the book is a renewed image of the imperial and local mechanisms of coexistence and of their limits and occasional dissolution in times of change and crisis Raising questions of governance and changes therein as well as epistemological questions regarding what has often been termed cosmopolitanism this book calls for a closer investigation of incidents of both peaceful coexistence as well as episodes of violence and conflict A useful addition to existing literature this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of Urban Studies History and Middle Eastern Studies

Preparing the Mothers of Tomorrow

Ela Greenberg,2012-11-30 From the late nineteenth century onward men and women throughout the Middle East discussed debated and negotiated the roles of young girls and women in producing modern nations In Palestine girls education was pivotal to discussions about motherhood Their education was seen as having the potential to transform the family so that it could meet both modern and nationalist expectations Ela Greenberg offers the first study to examine the education of Muslim girls in Palestine from the end of the Ottoman administration through the British colonial rule Relying upon extensive archival sources official reports the Palestinian Arabic press and interviews she describes the changes that took place in girls education during this time Greenberg describes how local Muslims often portrayed as indifferent to girls education actually responded to the inadequacies of existing government education by sending their daughters to missionary schools despite religious tensions or by creating their own private nationalist institutions Greenberg shows that members of all socioeconomic classes understood the triad of girls education modernity and the nationalist struggle as educated girls would become the mothers of tomorrow who would raise nationalist and modern children While this was the aim of the various schools in Palestine not all educated Muslim girls followed this path as some used their education even if it was elementary at best to become teachers nurses and activists in women s organizations
