English Novel Hist 1895-1920 David Trotter, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1993 Written specifically for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject David Trotter's The English Novel in History 1895 1920 provides the first detailed and fully comprehensive analysis of early twentieth century English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism acceptance meaning health happiness and home Collins also shows how cenderedness is deeply embedded in the grammar of Mam its lexicon morphology syntax and discourse structure This relatedness of Mam culture and linguistics provides an unusually detailed contribution to the debate on linguistic relativity and the Sapir Whorf hypothesis Collins combines historical accounts with firsthand ethnographic and linguistic methodology to explore the concept of centeredness Detailed accounts of his personal interaction with the Mam illustrate and enrich the book s concepts This volume will interest students of the relationship between language and culture generally and specifically those interested in the study of Maya of Mexico and Guatemala
