Bequeathed Writings and Poems of Hermann Lauscher Hermann Hesse, Published in Basel in 1901 though often attributed to 1900 Hinterlassene Schriften und Gedichte von Hermann Lauscher was presented as the posthumous papers of one Hermann Lauscher a playful literary device concealing the true author Hermann Hesse himself Issued by a small Basel publisher Reich this book is a curious hybrid of prose and poetry half fiction and half autobiography Hesse then in his early twenties adopted the persona of Hermann Lauscher as a kind of alter ego or fictional narrator The volume includes Lauscher s introspective sketches reflections on art and life and interspersed poems all purportedly found and published after Lauscher s untimely death In reality of course the work was entirely Hesse s own creation an early experiment in blending life and art The publication history of Hermann Lauscher is notable it had a limited release as a booklet but it succeeded in drawing critical attention Positive reviews about this book caught the eye of the eminent publisher Samuel Fischer in Berlin who then reached out to Hesse Thus Hermann Lauscher became a turning point it impressed the literary establishment enough to give the young writer his first big break with a major publisher Initially dismissed as obscure Hermann Lauscher gained retrospective acclaim for its avant garde structure and psychological acuity The work s pseudonymous framing echoing the ironic detachment of early modernism underscores Hesse s growing distrust of literary pretension Its thematic preoccupations artistic paralysis the commodification of beauty anticipate the self referential critiques of his later novels cementing its role as a harbinger of 20th century literary introspection This new edition features a contemporary translation of Hermann Hesse s early work making his philosophical and existential literature accessible to modern readers Enhanced by an illuminating afterword that focuses on Hesse s personal and intellectual relationship with Carl Jung a concise biography a
