Dancing Outside the Box Beth Valentine, 2013-12-18 Beth's mother loved to tell this story One morning when Beth was three or four years old she stepped out onto their front porch wearing coveralls A man approached on the sidewalk Seeing her he called out Hello little boy I am not a boy Beth called back I'm a girl Little girls don't wear coveralls he informed her This girl does she informed him That little girl supremely indifferent to popular opinion determined to think for herself and set her own rules has stayed alive in this author throughout her long very healthy and happy life This is a book of ideas The author tells of incidents in her own life and in the lives of family members and friends to illustrate these ideas In mid life she slowly changed from what is considered logical critical left brain thinking to emotional illogical right brain thinking dismantling her left brain beliefs brick by brick and replacing them with what many in the western world would consider weird nonsense She developed psychic powers was repeatedly amazed at the power and range of human consciousness and began to live in a bright new world filled with surprises and certainties a magical wonder filled world

Drypoint Jamie McKendrick, 2024-07-30 Jamie McKendrick's Drypoint depicts the turbulent present with incisive detail while often taking us back to an equally conflictual Biblical or classical world Acute and stoical in tone these poems transport us by bus or ferry or ghostly Rolls Royce to the cobbled streets of Ferrara the once Greek port of Smyrna the bombed acres of Liverpool and Mariupol and to places not to be found on any map places where North was south being lost like this Like his immigrant muntjac the poet disregards walls and fences and breaks through the borders of our ruled enclosures The presence of translations from poets ancient and modern is another example of the way space and time are here collapsed and reconfigured in a language rich with associations historical and vernacular

Out There Jamie McKendrick,2012-10-04 Jamie McKendrick s sixth collection starts from the far flung out there is the nothing or the something of outer space ascertaining the mood of an observer on Uranus or the perils of medieval travel or listening for the speech of alien landscapes Closer to home the poems adopt an outsiderish stance as they ponder the business of non belonging and draw up wry inventories of marginality finding room for those whom history has forgotten the inhabitants of a drowned valley in Wales or equally for the outcasts of natural history the northern bald ibis the hyena the moa whose skeletons are cairns to their own extinction But the poems themselves are vivid and stubbornly realised individuals they take short views make canny distinctions and tread carefully Invoking paintings and artefacts and facades they also add to an ongoing portrait of the artist caught for example amidst the patiently observed flotsam of a repeatedly flooding house which becomes more finely drawn with each of Jamie McKendrick s collections
