Spinning Away from the Center Ethan Laughman, 2019-09-01 These stories offer layered perceptive takes on what home means to us The people we meet in these stories are often traveling to and from home thinking about where they have come from where they are headed and how that journey will impact their futures Although the stories approach homecoming and homesickness through varied moods and styles they all come around to confronting a shared need a place to call home

Love, in Theory Ellen J. Levy, 2012-09-15 In this funny brainy thoroughly engaging debut collection an award winning writer looks at romance through the lens of scholarly theories to illuminate love in the information age In ten captivating and tender stories E J Levy takes readers through the surprisingly erotic terrain of the intellect offering a smart and modern take on the age old theme of love whether between a man and woman a man and a man a woman and a woman or a mother and a child drawing readers into tales of passion adultery and heartbreak A disheartened English professor's life changes when she goes rock climbing and falls for an outdoorsman A gay oncologist attending his sister's second wedding ponders dark matter in the universe and the ties that bind us Three psychiatric patients each convinced that he is Christ give rise to a love affair in a small Minnesota town A Brooklyn woman is thrown out of an ashram for choosing earthly love over enlightenment A lesbian student of film learns theories of dramatic action the hard way by falling for a married male professor Incorporating theories from physics to film to philosophy from Rational Choice to Thorstein Veblen's Theory of the Leisure Class these stories movingly explore the heart and mind shooting cupid's arrow toward a target that may never be reached Bright Shards of Someplace Else Monica McFawn, 2014-09-15 In the eleven kaleidoscopic stories that make up Bright Shards of Someplace Else Monica McFawn traces the combustive hilarious and profound effects that occur when people misread the minds of others The characters an array of artists scientists songwriters nannies horse trainers and poets often try to pin down another s point of view only to find that their own worldview is far from fixed The characters in McFawn s stories long for and fear the encroachment of others A young boy reduces his nanny s phone bill with a call then convinces her he can solve her other problems A man who works at a butterfly release business becomes dangerously obsessed with solving a famous mathematical proof A poetry professor finds himself entangled in the investigation of a murdered student In the final story an aging lyricist reconnects with a renowned singer to write an album in the Appalachian Mountains only to be interrupted by the appearance of his drug addicted son and a mythical story of recovery By turns exuberant and philosophically adroit Bright Shards of Someplace Else reminds us of both the limits of empathy and its absolute necessity Our misreadings of others may be unavoidable but they themselves can be things of beauty charm and connection

Hurricanes and Carnivals Lee Gutkind,2007 In Mexico writes Ilan Stavans in the introduction to this provocative new collection on Mexican culture and politics the essay is embraced as passionately as a sport While the American essay may be personal and confessional or erudite and academic it is presumed to be truthful By contrast the Mexican essay pushes the boundaries between fact and fiction as writers seek to make their opinions heard in literary journals in newspapers and even on cereal boxes What is real and what isn t in a Mexican essay only God knows concludes Stavans In Hurricanes and Carnivals Lee Gutkind a pioneer in the teaching of creative nonfiction brings together fifteen essays by Mexican Mexican American and Latin American writers that push the boundaries of style and form showing that navigating truth is anything but clear cut Although creative nonfiction is widely thought to be an American art form this collection proves otherwise By blending fact and fiction story and fantasy history and mythology these writers and others push the bounds of the essay to present a vision of Mexico rarely seen from this side of the border Addressing topics that include immigration politics ecology violence family and sexuality they take literary license on a whirlwind adventure C M Mayo shows us Mexico City as seen through the eyes of her pug Picadou Juan Villoro examines modern Mexico through the lens of demography Homero Aridjis uses the plight of nesting sea turtles to document a slowly changing Mexican attitude toward natural resources and Sam Quinones documents the decline of beauty queen addiction in Mazatlán and tells us about the flower festivals where according to lore only two things matter hurricanes and carnivals For readers interested in a literary view of contemporary Mexico as well as students of the creative nonfiction genre this volume is essential Fodor's Mexico 2009 Fodor's,2008 Provides information on Mexican history and culture and shares advice on sightseeing shopping and entertainment A Desert between Two Seas A. Muia,2025-09-15 Set in the crumbling Spanish missions of nineteenth century Baja California this mythic novel in linked stories follows two grief stricken people as haunted as the desolate chapels around them a priest who caused the drowning of a native boy by compelling him to fish for pearls and a deaf woman trying to outrun her murderous reputation as a pistolera Though the stories span landscapes villages characters and decades the heart of the novel is Baja California itself a stark land of cactus and creosote of russet canyons and splintered wastes of rock where people living in the shadow of ruined missions seek redemption on an inhospitable peninsula forsaken even by its priests

Miraculous Air C. M. Mayo, 2007 This exquisite book is a rare jewel in the literature of Mexico and its little known peninsula Baja Describing her adventures on this austere and beautiful slip of land C M Mayo creates a multi layered map of place filled with daredevil aviators sea turtle researchers Stone Age cave painters and countless other colorful characters Covering Baja from Cabo San Lucas to Tijuana Mayo's wit and curiosity help her weave a story that seamlessly combines history myth art and local color

The Theory of Light and Matter Andrew Porter, 2010-09-20 These ten short stories explore loss and sacrifice in American suburbia In idyllic suburbs across the country from Philadelphia to San Francisco narrators struggle to find meaning or value in their lives because of or in spite of something that has happened in their pasts In Hole a young man reconstructs the memory of his childhood friend's deadly fall In The Theory of Light and Matter a woman second guesses her choice between a soul mate and a comfortable one Memories erode as Porter's characters struggle to determine what has happened to their loved ones and whether they are responsible Children and teenagers carry heavy burdens in these stories in River Dog the narrator cannot fully remember a drunken party where he suspects his older brother assaulted a classmate in Azul a childless couple craving the affection of an exchange student fails to set the boundaries that would keep him safe and in Departure a suburban teenage boy fascinated with the Amish makes a futile attempt to date a girl he can never be close to Memory often replaces absence in these stories as characters reconstruct the events of their pasts in an attempt to understand what they have chosen to keep These struggles lead to an array of secretive and escapist behavior as the characters united by middle class social pressures try to maintain a sense of order in their lives Drawing on the tradition of John Cheever these stories recall and revisit the landscape of American suburbia through the lens of a new generation

Big Bend Bill Roorbach, 2013-05-01 Through quirky plots one of kind characters and more than a few twists the stories in Big Bend examine gentle hearted men and their relationships From made in heaven meetings to troublesome liaisons Roorbach's characters experience romance in unexpected sometimes disastrous ways In Fog a teenage boy learns hard lessons about canoes the Gulf of Maine sex and love A struggling young artist goes home for the holidays in search of succor for the stomach and heart with poor results in Thanksgiving Other stories recount the ultimately disastrous reunion of estranged friends an unemployed architect's foolish courting with bad company and a middle aged rock star's struggle with the urge to settle down In the title story Big Bend a grieving widower troubled by his own waning years is tempted by a seductively attentive birdwatcher no older than his daughter Poignant tales of hauntingly familiar situations Bill Roorbach's stories are full of heart romance edgy humor and the frequently concealed vulnerability of men

Thieves I've Known Tom Kealey, 2013-09-15 In these wondrously strange and revealing stories Tom Kealey chronicles the struggles and triumphs of the young and marginalized as they discover many ways of growing up Their names are Merrill Omar Shelby Laika Winston and Toomey but most people don't see them They are boxers in training and the children of fishermen They are altar boys in a poverty stricken parish They are assistant groundskeepers and assistant camel keepers They travel with the circus care for disabled siblings steal police cars and retrieve the stolen boots of a priest Ranging in abode from Puget Sound Washington to Pamlico Sound North Carolina they are abandoned yet courageous and plucky children and teenagers living on the edges of society Thieves I've Known is a collection of powerful moving stories about the lives of a redemptive and peculiar cast of young characters who become easy to know and difficult to forget Down on the Sidewalk Ethan Laughman, 2020-03-01 Front porches family cars playgrounds swimming pools from such familiar haunts of childhood these stories look out on the world through young eyes and hearts Wise beyond their years or soon to be Ruthie Omar J J and the other kids in these stories veer in and out of touching distance to hard lessons about trust love and mortality However engaged or aloof grownups are always nearby Far from perfect emissaries to the realm of adulthood they pose questions for children even as they offer answers

Super America Anne Panning, 2010-11 In settings as different as Honolulu Hawaii small town Minnesota and Taxco Mexico these nine stories and a novella show blue collar characters struggling to achieve the American Dream and sometimes alienating friends and family as they try to upgrade their working class pedigree Anne Panning's people despite their mixed record of success make us root for them on their sometimes heartbreaking journeys of entrepreneurship love and loss In Tidal Wave Wedding a tsunami in Honolulu yields surprising results for a couple on their honeymoon In All U Can Eat a woman tries to stave off the investment of her inheritance into a restaurant specializing in frog legs In the novella Freeze a teenage son's future is forever complicated after a life altering accident confines his father to a wheelchair and accelerates the disintegration of his parents marriage An eerie clinical replay of another accident this one on a bicycle in Hawaii is at the center of What Happened and in the title story a college theater major gets caught up in his father's exotic pets scheme Panning's stories show an acute awareness of place and whether it be a seventeenth century former monastery in Mexico a suburban housing development in Minnesota or a hard luck laundromat on the Oregon coast each setting often tells us something about the characters who occupy them Sometimes sad and often funny Super America takes risks with our notions about the American Dream through characters caught between their working class roots and grandiose visions The Last Prince of the Mexican Empire C. M. Mayo, 2010-05-01 The Last Prince of the Mexican Empire is a sweeping historical novel of Mexico during the short tragic at times surreal reign of Emperor Maximilian and his court Even as the American Civil War raged north of the border a clique of Mexican conservative exiles and clergy convinced Louis Napoleon to invade Mexico and install the Archduke of Austria Maximilian von Habsburg as Emperor A year later the childless Maximilian took custody of the two year old half American Prince Agustín de Iturbide y Green making the toddler the Heir Presumptive Maximilian's reluctance to return the child to his distraught parents even as his empire began to fall and the Empress Carlota descended into madness ignited an international scandal This lush grand read is based on the true story and illuminates both the cultural roots of Mexico and the political development of the Americas But it is made all the more captivating by the depth of Mayo s writing and her understanding of the pressures and influences on these all too human players

The Top Books of the Year Sky Over El Nido Stories The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Sky Over El Nido Stories : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
