American writers imagined the new urban backdrop as an obstacle to racial differentiation Examining works produced by writers painters architects and laborers who grappled with the early skyscraper s outsized and disorienting dimensions Brown explores this architecture s effects on how race was seen read and sensed at the turn of the twentieth century In lesser known works of apocalyptic science fiction light romance and Jazz Age melodrama as well as in more canonical works by W E B Du Bois F Scott Fitzgerald Aaron Douglas and Nella Larsen the skyscraper mediates the process of seeing and being seen as a racialized subject From its distancing apex reducing bodies to specks to the shadowy mega blocks it formed at street level the skyscraper called attention Brown argues to the malleable nature of perception A highly interdisciplinary work The Black Skyscraper reclaims the influence of race on modern architectural design as well as the less well understood effects these designs had on the experience and perception of race
