Chica da Silva Júnia Ferreira Furtado, 2008-11-17 J nia Ferreira Furtado offers a fascinating study of the world of a freed woman of color in a small Brazilian town where itinerant merchants former slaves Portuguese administrators and concubines interact across social and cultural lines The child of an African slave and a Brazilian military nobleman of Portuguese descent Chica da Silva won her freedom using social and matrimonial strategies But her story is not merely the personal history of a woman or the social history of a colonial Brazilian town Rather it provides a historical perspective on the cultural universe she inhabited and the myths that were created around her in subsequent centuries as Chica de Silva came to symbolize both an example of racial democracy and the stereotype of licentiousness and sensuality always attributed to the black or mulatta female in the Brazilian popular imagination

Literature and Ethics in Contemporary Brazil Vinicius Mariano De Carvalho, Nicola Gavioli, 2017-02-24 When Brazil was honored at the Frankfurt Book Fair in 2013 the Brazilian author Luiz Ruffato opened the event with a provocative speech claiming that literature through its pervasive depiction and discussion of otherness has the potential to provoke ethical transformation This book uses Ruffato's speech as a starting point for the discussion of contemporary Brazilian literature that stands in contrast to the repetition of social and cultural clichés By illuminating the relevance of humanities and literature as a catalyst for rethinking Brazil the book offers a resistance to the official discourses that have worked for so long to conceal social tensions injustices and secular inequities in Brazilian society In doing so it situates Brazilian literature away from the exotic and peripheral spectrum and closer to a universal and more relevant ethical discussion for readers from all parts of the world The volume brings together fresh contributions on both canonical contemporary authors such as Graciliano Ramos Rubem Fonseca and Dalton Trevisan and traditionally silenced writing subjects such as Afro Brazilian female authors These essays deal with specific contemporary literary and social issues while engaging with historically constitutive phenomena in Brazil including authoritarianism violence and the systematic violation of human rights The exploration of diverse literary genres from novels to graphic novels from poetry to crônicas and engagement with postcolonial studies gender studies queer studies cultural studies Brazilian studies South American literature and world literature carves new space for the emergence of original Brazilian thought

The Architecture of Freedom Hassanalay Ladha, 2019-12-26 Through a radical reading of Hegel's oeuvre The Architecture of Freedom sets forth a theory of open borders centered on a new interpretation of the German philosopher's related conceptions of language and the aesthetic mastery and servitude and subjectivity and the state The book's argument turns on Hegel's identification of Africa as a fluid utopic space enabling the traversal of the East West binary As Hegel's figure for the non historical Africa emerges as the negativity that propels the movement of the dialectic in time Mirroring the shrouded continent's relation to history Kantian architectonics step out of the realm of logic in Hegelian thought and drive the historical unfolding of the aesthetic In a foundational move Hegel hypostatizes the aesthetic entanglement of built and linguistic form as the colossus of Memnon an African warrior memorialized in ancient architecture myth and art Reaching for freedom the Memnon marks the architectonic modality through which the African slave at the telos of history will fulfill the spiritual promise of the human and bring about the politically mature state The book examines the syncretic figure of the Memnon and slave across Hegel's lecture courses the Phenomenology of Spirit the Encyclopedia and the Philosophy of Right Ultimately the book calls for a reassessment of a range of Hegelian philosophemes across disciplines in the humanities This book will be of particular interest to scholars in philosophy postcolonial and African studies political theory architecture and historiography

Progressive Mothers, Better Babies Okezi T. Otovo, 2016-05-31 In Bahia Brazil the decades following emancipation saw the rise of reformers who sought to reshape the citizenry by educating Bahian women in methods for raising better babies The idealized Brazilian would be better equipped to contribute to the labor and organizational needs of a modern nation Backed by many physicians politicians and intellectuals the resulting welfare programs for mothers and children mirrored complex debates about Brazilian nationality Examining the local and national contours of this movement Progressive Mothers Better Babies investigates families medical institutions state building and social stratification to trace the resulting policies which gathered momentum in the aftermath of abolition 1888 and the declaration of the First Republic 1889 culminating during the administration of President Getúlio Vargas 1930 1945 Exploring the cultural discourses on race gender and poverty that permeated medical knowledge and the public health system for almost a century Okezi T. Otovo draws on extensive archival research to reconstruct the implications for Bahia where family patronage politics governed poor women's labor as the mothers who were the focus of medical interventions were often the nannies and nursemaids of society's wealthier families The book reveals key transition points as the state of Bahia transformed from being a place where poor families could expect few social services to becoming the home of numerous programs targeting the poorest mothers and their children
