to Title IX to the NCAA It is an engaging account of groundbreaking personal achievement by a woman in the world of college sports and a stirring record of an extraordinary but little documented decade in the evolution of women's athletics

Association Monthly, 1913 The Association Monthly, 1914 The YWCA Magazine, 1912 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record, 1920 Between Mission and Market Daniel Rosenberg, 2017-04-26 Between Mission and Market The Freshman Year in a Corporate Age focuses on the arrival of college freshmen at the moment of the transformation it uses Adelphi University in suburban New York City to study an attempt to resolve first year difficulties As higher education institutions turn into enterprises run on business models the pressures of getting into college including the taking of the SAT and ACT have induced stress addictions eating disorders drug use and mental problems However special programs to ease the first year transition through counseling and support are run as cheaply as possible This book confronts some of the cardinal controversies in higher education particularly those affecting first year students high stakes testing in general particularly the SAT the intensification of student debt and the financial sentence imposed upon all who incur it and the dramatic pressures placed upon freshmen as they transition to college Developing Faculty in Liberal Arts Colleges Vicki L. Baker, Laura Gail Lunsford, Meghan J. Pifer, 2017-11-30 Developing Faculty Members in Liberal Arts Colleges analyzes the career stage challenges these faculty members must overcome such as a lack of preparation for teaching limited access to resources and mentors and changing expectations for excellence in teaching research and service to become academic leaders in their discipline and at these distinctive institutions Drawing on research conducted at the thirteen institutions of the Great Lakes Colleges Association Vicki L Baker Laura Gail Lunsford and Meghan J Pifer propose a compelling Alignment Framework for Faculty Development in Liberal Arts Colleges to show how these colleges succeed or sometimes fail in providing their faculties with the right support to be successful Three Centuries of Mission Daniel O'Connor, 2000-11-01 A new and expansive official history of the USPG commissioned to mark the tercentenary in 2001 The first half tells a compelling global story from the mission to the Americas in the 18th century through the North China Mission in the late 19th century to today's Social Development Programme in Bangladesh There is a particular focus on the post 1945 period of decolonization development and dialogue with other religions The second half is a collection of essays that give a wide range of themes and perspective from a history of missionary wives by Deborah Kirkwood to a discussion of the evolving role of the church in Zambia by Musonda Mwamba Three Centuries of Mission emphasizes the key instrumentality of the USPG in the emergence of a worldwide network of Churches in the Anglican Communion and their significance in the world at the beginning of the new century Mission Underway Ray Broadus Browne, 2002 The history of the study of popular culture in American academic since its re introduction in 1967 is filled with misunderstanding and opposition From the first proponents of the study of this major portion of American culture made clear that they were interested in making popular culture a supplement to the usual courses in such fields as literature sociology history philosophy and the other humanities and social sciences nobody proposed that study of popular culture replace the other disciplines but many suggested that it was time to reexamine the accepted courses and see if they were still viable

Opposition to the status quo always causes anxiety and opposition but when the issues are clarified often opposition and anxiety melt away as they are now doing Mission and Money Burton A. Weisbrod, Jeffrey P. Ballou, Evelyn D.

Asch, 2008-09-08 Mission and Money goes beyond the common focus on elite universities and examines the entire higher education industry including the rapidly growing for profit schools The sector includes research universities four year colleges two year schools and non degree granting career academies Many institutions pursue mission related activities that are often unprofitable and engage in profitable revenue raising activities to finance them This book contains a good deal of original research on schools revenue sources from tuition donations research patents endowments and other activities It considers lobbying distance education and the world market as well as advertising branding and reputation The pursuit of revenue while essential to achieve the mission of higher learning is sometimes in conflict with that mission itself The tension between mission and money is also highlighted in the chapter on the profitability of intercollegiate athletics The concluding chapter investigates implications of the analysis for public policy This Is My Story, This Is My Song Leonard S.

Buxton, 2019-08-20 The first of two volumes to be published in This is my Story This is my Song Leonard S Buxton recounts the first half of his engaging life and his long career in ministry He has written a very entertaining personal account of his upbringing as the son of a fire and brimstone Evangelical preacher during the Depression the beginnings of his political consciousness through WWI his college life and the strict mores of the 1950s and moving from parish to parish with his young family during the turbulent social change of the 1960s and early 1970s As a professor of psychology at Claflin a black university in South Carolina Leonard recalls his activism within the church and literally in his own backyard to break down the resistance to desegregation and to support the civil rights movement This book is filled with evocative photographs and colorful firsthand history its joys and heartbreaks Studebakers and VWs the Red Sox and Yankees teen hang outs in drugstores music dramatic productions and church camping the serious social stigma of divorce the illegality of adultery the scourge of polio the loss of a child group encounter sessions George McGovern Benjamin Spock Kent State burning crosses A man devoted to building congregations as a pastor psychologist parish counselor teacher and activist Leonard depicts characters and narrates events with remarkable acuity This book is a rich reflection on his experiences written with candor and humility and observing people and events through the kind lens of his dedication to serving others and his evolving faith as a Methodist minister To quote one of Leonard s aspirations for this memoir For those still casting around an unclear future this may say Take heart life will be full of surprises Uncommon Education Samuel Nyal Henrie, 2009 Uncommon

Education traces the evolution of Prescott College In this compelling work Samuel Henrie and others reveal what led to the inception of this special institution the philosophy behind it and a rare curriculum that includes adventure education social and ecological justice fieldwork and other hands on and unique educational opportunities Sam Henrie has made an immense contribution to higher education by chronicling this grand ongoing adventure in learning Prescott College s hands on feet in the field approach not only makes far more sense than the cattle calls that pass for education at most places but its amazing resilience and resurrection is one of the most hopeful stories for our times a true tale of how good ideas really can win if we never give up Alan Weisman Laureate Professor of Journalism University of Arizona retired Professor of Writing at Prescott College author of The World Without Us Gaviotas A Village to Reinvent the World and other works NASA

Authorizations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.
