Infibulation Esther K. Hicks, 2011-12-31 Infibulation is the most extreme form of female circumcision It plays an important role in the Islamic societies of northeastern Africa Until now the social significance and function of this practice has been poorly understood This has been no less true of Western commentators who have condemned the practice than of relevant governments that have attempted to curb it In Infibulation Esther K Hicks analyzes female circumcision as a cultural trait embedded in a historically traditional milieu and shows why it cannot be treated in isolation as a single issue destined for elimination In its brief history it has been recognized as a pioneering piece of research with enormous consequences As Hicks demonstrates much of the popular resistance to official efforts to eradicate infibulation has actually come from women Circumcision constitutes a rite of passage for female children It initiates them into womanhood and makes them eligible for marriage Often this is the only positive status position available to women in traditional Islamic societies Hicks points out that although female circumcision predates the introduction of Islam into the region the religious culture has successfully codified infibulation into the structural nexus of marriage family and social honor at all socioeconomic levels The

Invention of Somalia Ali Jimale Ahmed, 1995 This study analyses the basic assumptions which had informed the construction of the now discredited Somali myth International Encyclopedia of Comparative Law K.

Zweigert, 2003-01-01 No Sales rights in German speaking countries Eastern Europe Portugal Spain Italy Greece South and Central America Infibulation Esther Hicks, 2018-01-16 Infibulation is the most extreme form of female circumci sion It plays an important role in the Islamic societies of northeastern Africa Until now the social significance and function of this practice has been poorly understood In this volume Hicks analyzes female circumcision as a cultural trait embedded in a historically traditional milieu and shows why it cannot be treated in isolation as a single issue destined for elimination

Understanding the Contemporary Middle East Jillian Schwedler, Deborah J. Gerner, 2008 The third edition of Understanding the Contemporary Middle East includes two entirely new chapters one on religion and politics and one on the economies of the Middle East as well as a greatly expanded discussion of the 2003 invasion of Iraq In addition all of the chapters have been fully updated Maps photographs and tables of basic political data enhance the text which has already made its place as the best available introduction to the region State Collapse and Post-conflict Development in Africa Abdullah A. Mohamoud, 2006 Mohamoud's work considers the underlying causes for the breakdown of the state across both time and space. Time is considered across the triple history: the pre-colonial, colonial, and post-colonial processes. Space is used in the sense of taking the whole of Somalia as a unit of analysis. This approach enables the discovery of different structural crises over a period of time and examines these cumulative effects on the current upheavals in Somalia. Among the approaches, State Collapse and Post Conflict Development in Africa covers the constraints in the harsh material environment, the subsistence pastoral mode of existence, the colonial intervention, and the subsequent division of the land into five parts. Cold War geopolitics, decades of armed struggles, and the post-colonial crisis of governance. Dr. Abdulla Awil Mohamoud runs SAHAN, an academic research and consultancy agency which conducts policy-oriented research and fact-finding missions abroad, mainly in Africa. He undertakes evaluation and monitoring activities, provides training, and offers advisory services on integration and multi-cultural issues. He holds an MA degree from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, and earned his PhD at the University of Amsterdam. Mohamoud has served regularly as an election observer in UN, EU, Council of Europe, and OSCE missions to conflict and war-torn societies in East Timor, Kosovo, Nigeria, Serbia, and Zimbabwe.

Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries Traugott Koch, Ingeborg T. Solvberg, 2004-02-26. Welcome to ECDL 2003 and to these conference proceedings featuring all the papers presented at the 7th European Conference on Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries. Following Pisa 1997, Heraklion 1998, Paris 1999, Lisbon 2000, Dordrecht 2001, and Rome 2002, ECDL 2003 in Trondheim reaches some of the northernmost shores of the continent. Being the seventh in an annual series of conferences, it represents, for better and for worse, a considerable tradition in the fast-changing world of digital library-related research and development. It is still a difficult and slow job to change traditional forms and formats of communication at and related to scientific conferences, and also to change participants' expectations. Yet each new conference builds upon the topics and communities involved in previous events and inherits the commitment to quality established by its predecessors. Each year ECDL has to live up to its role of being the major European forum focusing on digital libraries and associated technical, practical, and social issues.

bringing diverse disciplines and application communities together. There are still challenges in this respect ahead of us, but the quality and range of papers and other contributions combined with opportunities for debate should ensure that ECDL 2003 sets high standards for the future.
