Some Mothers Son:

Some Mother's Son Terry George, Jim Sheridan, 1996 In 1980 and 1981 imprisoned Irish Nationalists embarked on a hunger strike to protest Margaret Thatcher's British government Empowered by their belief that they were prisoners of war rather than convicted criminals the young men refused to wear prisoners uniforms and began a hunger strike to protest their status both in prison and in terror stricken Northern Ireland Led by Bobby Sands who was elected to Parliament while on strike in jail and supported by the firepower of the IRA the prisoners endured a grueling test of faith and will Some Mother's Son tells their story through the shared experience of two mothers one a strident nationalist the other a pacifist who must come to terms with the political beliefs that may take their sons lives

Mothers of Heroes, Mothers of Martyrs Suzanne Evans, 2007-02-09 Suzanne Evans finds commonalities between the many images of war mothers the Canadian Silver Cross mother the ancient Jewish Maccabean mother of seven martyred sons the mother of a Palestinian suicide bomber She compares the lore about mothers of martyrs in the Judeo Christian Muslim and Sikh traditions with stories of World War I Canadian mothers who were depicted in the media as having sacrificed their sons for the sake of civilization justice freedom and God After the war these mothers were honoured with the Silver Cross medal Evans argues that like the mothers of past martyrs the image of the war supportive mother in Canada had a powerful influence over public opinion and drew supporters to the cause

Irish Film Martin McLoone, 2019-07-25 This is an exploration of the representation of Ireland and the Irish in British and US cinemas as well as Irish made films The book offers readings of a wide range of key films such as The Butcher Boy 1997 Patriot Games 1992 and Angela's Ashes 1999 It discusses the full range of Irish cinematic productions from the low budget work of Comerford and Breathnach to the bigger Hollywood productions like Ron Howard's Far and Away 1992 and looks at the second cinema of directors such as Neil Jordan and Jim Sheridan where medium sized budgets allow for greater creative control in Ireland Feeding into wider debates about national and cultural identity post national cinema and the role of the state the book provides an overview of how a relatively small film culture such as Ireland's can live successfully in the shadow of Hollywood

Ten Acres C. Joseph Socha, 2009-07-08 Ten Acres is about a dream a hope of the main character Joseph Novak After over four years service in the Navy in World War II and seeing people dying and starving he vows that after the War he would find some place of peace to wash the horrors of war that continued to crowd his mind This is about how his search for peace and life progressed

Overland Monthly, Devoted to the Development of the Country, 1913 Overland Monthly Bret Harte, 1913 The Overland Monthly, 1913

Lift Up Your Hearts James A. Wallace, Robert P. Waznak, Guerric DeBona, 2005-11 This brilliant collection of homilies draws on the Sunday and feast day readings to demonstrate the relevance of biblical interpretation to the life of a community and its members The purpose of each homily is to address listeners who have gathered for worship by helping them to recognize that God is living present and active in the world and also by helping them respond to God's presence by giving praise and thanks and by living a life that accords with the teachings of Jesus Taken together they constitute a valuable resource for the homilist in the creation of future sermons of equal relevance to the time and circumstances under which they are delivered This second volume comes out of the same vision as its companion volume of homilies for the A cycle At the heart of the B cycle of readings is the Gospel of Mark which is widely believed to be the oldest of the four gospels and the authors present these homilies as material for reflection by both preachers and listeners

The Community House Don Hildebrand,2013 Mayor Hank Smid learned early on July 8 1900 that his family bank had been robbed and his long time friend murdered Small Midwestern town Snyder ville would never be the same The beginning of the twentieth century now required the two struggling cultural groups to resolve their differences if progress was to be achieved Wealthy land baron Fenton and the town people were compelled to work together and a new meeting place a community house appeared to be the answer Draining the low swampy areas surrounding the town was finally accomplished after a gigantic grain elevator fire a tornado a diphtheria epidemic a rape murder and other natural and human disasters of epic proportions Electricity finally arrived and changed the mood of all the inhabitants Now issues of capital punishment women s rights and political agendas were readily apparent The trial of the two men accused of murder in the 1900 bank robbery was held in the newly dedicated Community House and the spectacular trial drew national attention Significant attention was focused on Gerhard Smid as he prosecuted the defendants and skillfully introduced trial tactics dealing with issues of capital punishment

The Social Hygiene Bulletin ,1917 Sex, Race, and God Susan Thistlethwaite,2009-04-01 Sex Race and God is the impassioned manifesto of a white feminist s reckoning with the meaning of race including her own whiteness in doing theology We should be discussing and acting on many of Thistlethwaite s insights for quite some time She has made a vital contribution to the feminist theological enterprise and to the critical relationship between black and white women in it Carter Heyward Sex Race and God is a sincere attempt to listen to and learn from African American women a serious and largely successful effort to create a method that addresses differences rather than proposing wishful commonalities Many women of color will find it promising a basis for dialogue The Women s Review of Books This pivotal book illuminates a significant ongoing debate at the intersection of two fields contemporary theology and feminist studies Choice Thistlethwaite does what so few white feminists have done genuinely interact with and learn from the strong differences in experience and perspective between African American women and European American women The Other Side

Cinema and Northern Ireland John Hill,2019-07-25 Traces the history of film production in Northern Ireland from the beginnings of a local film industry in the 1920s and 1930s when the first Northern Irish quota quickies were made through the propaganda films of the 1940s and 1950s and on to the cinema of the Troubles

Nation and Gender in Contemporary Europe Vera Tolz,Stephenie Booth,2005 Building on the growing body of theoretical literature on the gendered nature of nationalism this book offers a systematic examination of similarities and differences in the construction of gender and national identities in post communist societies of Eastern and East Central

Europe as well as established and the more stable democracies of Western Europe It points to some of the key sources of inevitable tensions in the future united Europe which stem from different perceptions of national and gender roles in different parts of the continent
