Robert Ewbank,2009-06-05 Founder of the Methodist Church is one of the world s greatest religious figures A practical rather than systematic theologian he wrote and preached for the common man He is well known as a man of one book the Bible but he read like no other during his time We are left with fourteen volumes of his works and eight each of his letters and journals His brother became the troubadour of Methodism writing countless hymns John also took classic Christian works and edited them for the common man to read And if this were not enough he preached thousands of times both indoors and out J Robert Ewbank examines In what Wesley thought about other religions Did he think all religions were from God and therefore there was little difference between them or did he think that there is uniqueness in Christianity Was he concerned about other philosophies and thoughts about religion popular in his day What did he think about Natural Man the Indians the Deists the Jews the Roman Catholics and the Mystics Were they also fine with him or did he discuss the differences between them revealing where he found them wrong Furthermore what did Wesley think about the possibility of salvation for all those who held to these other positions Did he find that it is possible for them to be saved by a loving God or have they stepped outside of the bounds therefore requiring extreme difficulty to be saved In a time of enormous stress on the entire human family as we try to understand appreciate and celebrate our diversity J Robert Ewbank has given us an excellent resource to help us deeply consider the issues and continue to affirm the core values and theology of the Christian movement Rueben P Job author of Three Simple Rules Seeking Science-Friendly Christianity Harwood

Hoover,2023-11-17 This book brings together lessons from three journeys The first journey began with my acceptance of Jesus at a young age together with my growing recognition of the differences between the scriptural record and scientific understanding It continued with a young man s adventure a retreat into nature and an encounter with war War and life s darker side convinced me that even as nature brings awe and opens us to religious experience we need morality The second journey began as I inquired into the ministry When the church transferred the guide they had assigned to me Bob Wessman became my mentor Bob was an ordained pastor with a doctorate in theology For twenty years we read and discussed theology including the Catholic ideas that I had discovered while teaching with the Dominican Sisters Bob is in hospice care as I write this and my library is full of the books that he gifted to me Thank you Bob I now had many ideas from my first two journeys but they floated about in my head without an organizing form The challenge was to find a form that would allow the ideas to come together and speak in harmony Differences between Scripture and science had troubled me since my youth and I could not ignore science It was simply too good at finding truth to ignore So science would have to help me Science cannot touch all that religion touches but science and technology can be in correspondence with theology Researching and writing this book could explore that relationship The result was to have remained personal but then I thought that a reader might find an idea or two useful A person who is literate in science might see why trusting Jesus is both good and reasonable This book is the story of the third journey an odyssey through science and Christian theology First and Second Reports

The Chimney Sweeper's Boy Barbara Vine, 2012-10-24 An unforgettable tale of mystery and obsession by Barbara Vine pseudonym of Ruth Rendell winner of the Mystery Writers of America Grand Master Award for lifetime achievement This is the utterly absorbing story of best selling novelist Gerald Candless whose sudden death from a heart attack leaves behind a wife and two doting daughters To sort through her grief one of his daughters Sarah decides to write a biography of her internationally celebrated father Within hours of beginning her research Sarah comes across the first of what will be many shocking revelations As her life is slowly torn apart a terrible logic finally emerges to explain her mother's remoteness her father's need to continually reinvent himself in his work and a long forgotten London murder

Three Barbara Vine Mysteries Ruth Rendell, 2017-12-05 Three spellbinders from a New York Times bestselling Edgar Award winner unequivocally the most brilliant mystery writer of our time Patricia Cornwell This trio of Barbara Vine mysteries provides undisputable evidence that no one surpasses Ruth Rendell when it comes to stories of obsession instability and malignant coincidence Stephen King A Dark Adapted Eye Faith Severn never understood why her respectable aunt Vera snapped and murdered her own beloved sister But thirty years after Vera is condemned and hanged a true crime writer's new investigation into the case is finally allowing Faith to see her family's unspeakable history and its bygone tragedy in a chilling new light An Edgar Award winner this rich beautifully crafted novel P D James is Ruth Rendell at her formidable best The New York Times Book Review The Chimney Sweeper's Boy When celebrated author Gerald Candless dies at his cliff-top home in Devon his daughter Sarah is commissioned to write his admiring biography only to discover her father's entire life was a lie Now Sarah fears that understanding all her father has hidden and why is the last thing she wants A novel about the power of taboos transgressions guilts deceptions horrors and atonements Independent from the best mystery writer in the English speaking world Time The Brimstone Wedding Mired in a loveless marriage and a troubled affair

Jenny Warner has only Stella Newland to confide in. A patient at the English nursing home where Jenny works, Stella is open to hearing all about Jenny's life. Stella understands she has secrets too. When she gives Jenny the key to her house, it unlocks a mystery about the horrifying consequences of love, and Stella is drawn into a dark, hypnotic story of romantic obsession. The New York Times Book Review The Chimney Sweeper's Boy Ruth Rendell, 2011-02-22. A daughter's research into her father's life unearths shocking family secrets in this frightening novel. Express on Sunday. After celebrated English author Gerald Candless dies of a heart attack at his cliff-top home above Gauntton Dunes in Devon, his eldest daughter Sarah is commissioned to write his autobiography. Ever present in her life, her father was generous, passionate, and talented, yet always a bit of a mystery. Who's to blame for his chilly relationship with her mother that seemed to survive something unspoken? Why, in each successive novel, did he seem to reinvent himself, never settling for one public persona? What of his odd little parlor games for which only he knew the rules and the purpose? And was it really true that he had no living relatives? What begins as an admiring project becomes an obsession. For Sarah's first discovery is a stunner: Gerald Candless was not his real name. The more she uncovers, the deeper Sarah's fear and fascination grows. Her father's life was nothing more than an ingeniously plotted work of fiction. As each lie Sarah uncovers gives way to another, her journey into the past of a familiar stranger gets so dark that seeing the truth could be the last thing she wants. From the New York Times bestselling author of Dark Corners and three-time Edgar Award winner comes a novel about the power of taboos, transgressions, guilts, deceptions, horrors, atonements, upsets, and upheavals. Independent. And it's as jolting as a flash of lightning. Sunday Times Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons Canada. Parliament.
