Somewhere Between Life And Death:

Somewhere Between Life and Death Lurlene McDaniel, 2010-10-27 The celebration isn't supposed to end in tragedy The night of their high school drama group's cast party starts out as fun for sisters Amy and Erin Their lives come crashing down when Amy takes the car to get more food and has a horrible accident Erin and her family pray for Amy to awaken from her coma But as the monitor beeps and the respirator hisses Amy lies somewhere between life and death Erin and her parents must find the courage to accept the fact that Amy's life support system will never bring her back When she dies can the family give some meaning to her senseless death Can Amy's dying become the hope for someone else's living Between Life and Death David Pyle, 2014-10-05 It is the summer of 1977 on the cusp of a technological revolution that will soon cause the world to shrink Seventeen year old James Earl Williams arrived in Natchez Mississippi looking forward to a new beginning far from the world of his New Jersey childhood After years of life in gang riddled neighborhoods and fast paced crime life has come to a virtual standstill But all is not as quiet as it first seems Supernatural forces are beckoning to James searching for a treasure hidden deep inside him The changes he expected when he arrived are far different from the transformations about to overtake him and his family His first surprise comes in the form of an annoying nightly sound one that his grandparents dismiss as the natural decline of their aging homestead The second surprise fits inside a pair of tight blue jeans has bright blue eyes and long wavy black hair Jolie Lefleur Dimanche And she has had a dream impossible to ignore one which lures her into a torrid relationship with James Earl Tormented by the past and present love and hope will entice James Earl Williams into a dark place where dreams and premonitions come alive One wrong decision could easily take him to a place of no return Primordial Landscapes, Incorruptible Bodies Dag Øistein Endsjø, 2008 As the first monk in the desert Antony became an early Christian superstar eclipsing his many ascetic predecessors The introduction of asceticism into the wilderness also represented an encounter between Christian and Hellenistic ideas For centuries Greeks had considered the uncultivated geography intrinsically primordial a chaotic place where man struggled to remain human The wilderness represented an eternal ordeal where man always faced fierce beasts disorder and death but also where simultaneously he could attain boundless wealth wisdom and even physical immortality Through Athanasius of Alexandria's fourth century biography of Antony we learn how the Christian appropriation of Greek ideas on geography bodies and immortality raised asceticism to an entirely new level Placed in his uncultivated landscape Antony became a true martyr an athlete of God and a holy man able to retrieve the bodily incorruptibility lost in the Fall which all Christians could look forward to at the end of times In this way Athanasius employed a traditional Greek worldview to demonstrate the superiority of Christianity over Paganism which never promised ordinary people anything but an eternal existence as dead and disembodied souls The Life and Death of Peter Sellers Roger Lewis, 1997 Traces the life and career of the British actor discusses his major roles and depicts his complex and often difficult personality Serious Pressure: Standing

Belgium and the modernist interest in multiple viewpoints to the singularity of perspective with which generals studied battlefield maps Though her emphasis is on literary works by Robert Graves E M Forster and Vera Brittain among others Booth s analysis extends to memorials posters and architecture of the Great War This interdisciplinary quality of Booth s study results in a much deeper understanding of how the Great War affected cultural representations and how that culture represented the War

Human Rights and the Reinvention of Freedom Nick Stevenson,2016-10-04 This volume seeks to propose a reinvention of freedom under contemporary conditions of globalization cross border mobility and neo liberal dominance There are currently two predominant myths circulating about freedom The first is that in a global age growing numbers of citizens are less concerned with freedom than they are with security Secondly there is the presumption that freedom only refers to market freedom and consumerism implying that the ideas of choice and consumption are interchangeable with ideas of freedom Stevenson argues that while these arguments are significant they are deeply misleading More authentic ideas of freedom such as self realisation participating in politics and seeking a meaningful life of self reflection have not been entirely displaced but have instead become reinvented in our global times The cries of freedom can still be heard in a multitude of places from the Arab Spring to the Occupy Movement and from the protests against European austerity to the current popularity of human rights Stevenson also argues that the idea of freedom has become increasingly mobile in our interconnected and transnational society The spaces and places of civil society are more complex in this global age pushing ideas of freedom far beyond the usual arena of national politics This volume brings together a diverse range of cultural interpretations in respect of freedom related to the idea of the commons cosmopolitanism contemporary documentary cinema and the history of jazz music Exploring the ways in which notions of freedom are being re made within the context of the present and looking more precisely at the current threats to freedom it will be of interest to students and scholars of globalization human rights and cultural sociology

Unbearable Life Arthur Bradley,2019-10-15 In ancient Rome any citizen who had brought disgrace upon the state could be subject to a judgment believed to be worse than death damnatio memoriae condemnation of memory The Senate would decree that every trace of the citizen s existence be removed from the city as if they had never existed in the first place Once reserved for individuals damnatio memoriae in different forms now extends to social classes racial and ethnic groups and even entire peoples In modern times the condemned go by different names enemies of the people the missing the disappeared ghost detainees in black sites but they are subject to the same fate of political erasure Arthur Bradley explores the power to render life un-lived from ancient Rome through the War on Terror He argues that sovereignty is the power to decide what counts as being alive and what does not to make life unbearable unrecognized as having lived or died In readings of Augustine Shakespeare Hobbes Robespierre Schmitt and Benjamin Bradley asks What is the life of this unbearable life How does it change and endure across sovereign time and space from empires to republics from kings to presidents To what extent can it be resisted or lived otherwise A

Armélagos, Dennis P. Van Gerven, 2017-09-20 George J Armélagos spent thirty years at various sites in Sudan searching for ancient Nubian civilizations that gave rise to what we now know as the upper Nile civilizations. Most of these sites are now underwater due to being inundated when the Aswan Dam was built on the Upper Nile and flooded the ancient cities of Wadi Halfa and Kulubnarti. While hundreds of articles have been written about the research at these sites, this monograph where Armélagos invited his former student Dennis Van Gerven to collaborate with him represents the first attempt to explore all of the biocultural relationships between the villages, the people, and the region. Somewhere Between Life and Death Lurlene McDaniel, 1990-12-01 When a tragic automobile accident places her sister in an irreversible coma, Amy must come to terms with the notion of euthanasia and the meaning of life and death. University of California Publications in Zoology University of California (1868-1952), University of California, Berkeley, 1927 The Life and Death of Rose Doucette Harry Hunsicker, 2024-10-01 Dallas PI Dylan Fisher thought he was done with his ex-wife but now he's solving her murder. Dallas private investigator Dylan Fisher hasn't seen his ex-wife Rose in three years, which is why he's surprised when she asks him to meet her at a hotel. Rose Doucette is a homicide detective and she wants Dylan's help with a murder investigation that she's been asked to step back from but can't seem to let go. They review the details of the case and part ways but as Rose is leaving the parking lot, Dylan sees a suspicious car begin to follow her. Feeling uneasy, he tails the car and tries to warn Rose, but he's too late: the driver of the car shoots her, killing her instantly before speeding away. The police are determined to pin the murder on Dylan, so he's left with no choice but to find the killer himself. Teaming up with Rose's widower, a defense attorney named Tito, the pair dive into Rose's past to figure out who could've wanted to kill the woman they both loved and what they were trying to hide. Perfect for fans of Michael Connelly and Robert Crais. The Life and Death of Objects Lars Lerup, 2022-04-04 Lars Lerup's conceptual explorations as a designer and thinker have been inspired by philosophers and artists from Foucault to Beckett. Lerup's furniture designs elude consumer culture. They conform neither to what is commonly understood as useful nor to what is typically regarded as necessary. They question the assumed functions of furniture and, at the same time, their assigned place in space. His pieces interrogate their roles and positions and introduce a disturbing or at least disconcerting note to conventional floor plans. This autobiography of a design project is about rendering visible the consumerism that is driving the current economically motivated expansion of our cities and dealing with the consequences for the environment and society.
