Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch,2011 What is strange Or better who is strange When do we encounter the strange This volume takes the question of hosting the Stranger to the deeper level of embodied imagination and the senses It asks How does the embodied imagination relate to the Stranger in terms of hospitality or hostility given the common root of hostis as both host and enemy How do humans sense the dimension of the strange and alien in different religions arts and cultures How do the five physical senses relate to the spiritual senses especially the famous sixth sense as portals to an encounter with the Other Is there a carnal perception of alterity which would operate at an affective prereflective preconscious level What exactly do embodied imaginaries of hospitality and hostility entail And what finally are the topical implications of these questions for an ethics and practice of tolerance and peace The Central Law Journal ,1879 Vols 65 96 include Central law journal s international law list

Tannen,2002-05-28 Why does talk in families so often go in circles leaving us tied up in knots In this illuminating book Deborah Tannen the linguist and bestselling author of You Just Don't Understand and many other books reveals why talking to family members is so often painful and problematic even when we're all adults Searching for signs of acceptance and belonging we find signs of disapproval and rejection Why do the seeds of family love so often yield a harvest of criticism and judgment In I Only Say This Because I Love You Tannen shows how important it is in family talk to learn to separate word meanings or messages from heart meanings or metamessages unstated but powerful meanings that come from the history of our relationships and the way things are said Presenting real conversations from people's lives Tannen reveals what is actually going on in family talk including how family conversations must balance the longing for connection with the desire for control as we struggle to be close without giving up our freedom This eye opening book explains why grown women so often feel criticized by their mothers and why mothers feel they can't open their mouths around their grown daughters why growing up male or female or as an older or younger sibling results in different experiences of family that persist throughout our lives and much much more By helping us to understand and redefine family talk Tannen provides the tools to improve relationships with family members of every age
