Song of a Falling World Jack Lindsay,1948 British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen,2013-06-20 First Published in 2000 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism Christianity in Roman Britain to AD 500 Charles Thomas,Charles Christi Thomas,1981-01-01 Song of a Falling World Jack Lindsay,1948 The Mind of the Master Class Elizabeth Fox-Genovese,Eugene D.

Genovese,2005-10-17 The Mind of the Master Class tells of America s greatest historical tragedy It presents the slaveholders as men and women a great many of whom were intelligent honorable and pious It asks how people who were admirable in so many ways could have presided over a social system that proved itself an enormity and inflicted horrors on their slaves The South had formidable proslavery intellectuals who participated fully in transatlantic debates and boldly challenged an ascendant capitalist free labor society Blending classical and Christian traditions they forged a moral and political philosophy designed to sustain conservative principles in history political economy social theory and theology while translating them into political action Even those who judge their way of life most harshly have much to learn from their probing moral and political reflections on their times and ours beginning with the virtues and failings of their own society and culture Understand

Roman Civilization: Teach Yourself Paula James,2012-07-06 This remarkable and original introduction to Roman civilization starts with a tour of Rome and uses real sights which you can visit today as a starting point for discussions of all aspects of Roman life From art and architecture to politics and propaganda this is a unique and accessible guide to the civilization that shaped the world as it is today Readers will gain new insights into the Roman past its people its psychology and its society and they will feel encouraged and confident to visit Rome themselves or to read its most important texts

From the Tetrarchs to the Theodosians Scott McGill,Cristiana Sogno,Edward Watts,2010-04-01 An integrated collection of essays examining the politics social networks law historiography and literature of the later Roman world The volume treats three central themes the first section looks at political and social developments across the period and argues that in spite of the stress placed upon traditional social structures many elements of Roman life remained only slightly changed The second section focuses upon biographical texts and shows how late antique authors adapted traditional modes of discourse to new conditions The final section explores the first years of the reign of Theodosius I and shows how he built upon historical foundations while unfurling new methods for utilising presenting and commemorating imperial power These papers analyse specific events and local developments to highlight examples of both change and continuity in the Roman world from 284 450 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Gospel as Epic in Late

On the Nature of Ecological Paradox Michael Charles Tobias,Jane Gray Morrison,2021-05-18 This work is a large powerfully illustrated interdisciplinary natural sciences volume the first of its kind to examine the critically important nature of ecological paradox through an abundance of lenses the biological sciences taxonomy archaeology geopolitical history comparative ethics literature philosophy the history of science human geography population ecology epistemology anthropology demographics and futurism The ecological paradox suggests that the human biological and from an insular perspective successful struggle to exist has come at the price of isolating H sapiens from life sustaining ecosystem services and far too much of the biodiversity with which we find ourselves at crisis level odds It is a paradox dating back thousands of years implicating millennia of human machinations that have been utterly ruinous to biological baselines Those metrics are examined from numerous multidisciplinary approaches in this thoroughly original work which aids readers particularly natural history students who aspire to grasp the far reaching dimensions of the Anthropocene as it affects every facet of human experience past present and future and the rest of planetary sentience With a Preface by Dr Gerald Wayne Clough former Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and President Emeritus of the Georgia Institute of Technology Foreword by Robert Gillespie President of the non profit Population Communication The Crisis in Marxism Jack Lindsay,1981

Middle Imperial China, 900-1350 Linda Walton,2023-08-03 In this highly readable and engaging work Linda Walton presents a dynamic survey of China s history from the tenth through the mid fourteenth centuries from the founding of the Song dynasty through the Mongol conquest when Song China became part of the Mongol Empire and Marco Polo made his famous journey to the court of the Great Khan Adopting a thematic approach she highlights the political social economic intellectual and cultural changes and continuities of the period often conceptualized as Middle Imperial China Particular emphasis is given to themes that inform scholarship on world history religion the state the dynamics of empire the transmission of knowledge the formation of political elites gender and the family Consistent coverage of peoples beyond the borders Khitan Tangut Jurchen and Mongol among others provides a broader East Asian context and introduces a more nuanced integrated representation of China s past Jack Lindsay Anne Cranny-Francis,2023-11-26 This book offers an in depth analysis of the work of prolific writer activist and publisher Jack Lindsay 1900 1990 It maps the development of his ideas across the twentieth century by reference to the five British writers about whom he published major studies William Blake John Bunyan Charles Dickens George Meredith and William Morris At the same time it maps the formation through the twentieth century of Left cultural politics which Lindsay repeatedly anticipated in areas such as the fundamental interconnectedness of human beings and the natural world the formative role of culture in both social and individual being the crucial role of the senses in embodied being and the rejection of mind body dualism Through his analysis Lindsay foretold both the social alienation and the environmental degradation that characterise the beginning of the twenty first century while his interdisciplinary research and transdisciplinary analysis provide models for how we might address these critical concerns
