Song of the Eclectic Tambourine Ron De Torre, 2010-05-28. Song of the Eclectic Tambourine begins in 1968 when Marc Amati falls in love with two young women as disparate as the political climate of the times. Lilly Garrett is a courageous flower child committed to non-violence, social justice, and ending the Vietnam War, while Mary Belinda is wealthy, talented, and determined to achieve the fame her mother was cheated by McCarthyism and Hollywood sexism. What Marc learns from and because of both women will affect life and help him deal with the challenges of his generation: humanity versus expediency, compassion versus profit and self-interest versus altruism. For Marc, it is a coming of age in stages. Both women face their own ordeals as they attempt to succeed in a hostile society, Mary being a strong-willed woman in the recording industry and Lilly in a series of social and political endeavors. Marc's story is an ironic, irreverent, and critical look at the past and its effect on the present. More at <http://www.dtdesertrat.wordpress.com>

His Song Sariah James, 2021-01-26. About His Song: Trials come for us all. No one is immune. Some times life trials can be permanently life altering, sending us in directions we never anticipated. No matter how far down the rungs of sin you have gone, there is an almighty God who meets us where we are and seeks to raise us up out of the muck and mire of our own choices to a better place. This story begins with an embittered widow who struggles with the God she thinks she knows and the one who is I AM. When she takes matters into her own hands in trying to regain happiness in her shattered world, she finds out quickly the only solution for a broken heart is the one who made it. What should you do when you are going through the trial of your life and have to make a soul-crushing decision in the middle of it? God can restore anything, even the things we broke on purpose. You'll learn how much of blessing a trial can be if we just surrender our lives and our will to our maker. Read and find out for yourself how God takes everything in our lives and composes a perfect masterpiece.
