Phenomenologies of the Stranger Richard Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch, 2011 What is strange Or better who is strange When do we encounter the strange This volume takes the question of hosting the Stranger to the deeper level of embodied imagination and the senses It asks How does the embodied imagination relate to the Stranger in terms of hospitality or hostility given the common root of hostis as both host and enemy How do humans sense the dimension of the strange and alien in different religions arts and cultures How do the five physical senses relate to the spiritual senses especially the famous sixth sense as portals to an encounter with the Other Is there a carnal perception of alterity which would operate at an affective prereflective preconscious level What exactly do embodied imaginaries of hospitality and hostility entail And what finally are the topical implications of these questions for an ethics and practice of tolerance and peace
