The Divided World Selected Stories:

Owen Marshall Selected Stories Vincent O'Sullivan, 2010-05-01 A generous selection from New Zealand's foremost writer of short stories Peter Simpson in reviewing Owen Marshall's stories in the New Zealand Listener wrote Marshall is held in uncommon affection by New Zealand readers generally we admire and respect rather than love our writers This love is perhaps evoked not just by the superb quality of Marshall's writing but because his stories so precisely capture his fellow New Zealanders and their country From the provinces to the cities the remote landscapes to journeying overseas Marshall's stories show a deep understanding of who and where we are Sometimes he skewers the locals with sharp and sly comedy in other stories there's an elegiac sadness or a grim reality but always an insightful exploration of human emotions From the substantial body of work created over the last thirty years critic writer and academic Vincent O'Sullivan has selected sixty stories that give a wide representation of Marshall's range He once wrote that short stories should aspire to a combination of intransigence and poetry both of which are evident in this fine selection Marshall is a writer who speaks with equal intensity to the unbearable loveliness and malevolence of life Carolyn Bliss World Literature Today The Divided World Owen Marshall, 1989 The Oxford Guide to Contemporary World Literature John Sturrock, 1997 opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures The Auckland University Press Anthology of New Zealand Literature Jane Stafford, Mark Williams, 2013-11-01 From the earliest records of exploration and encounter to the globalized multicultural present this compilation features New Zealand's major writing from Polynesian mythology to the Yates Garden Guide from Allen Curnow to Alice Tawhai and from Wiremu Te Rangikaheke's letters to Katherine Mansfield's notebooks Including fiction nonfiction letters speeches novels stories comics and songs this imaginative selection provides new paths into New Zealand writing and culture The Collected Stories Laurie Colwin, 2017-10-03 The definitive collection of short fiction from a writer who has single handedly revitalized the short story Los Angeles Times If anyone wrote eloquently and magnificently about affairs of the heart it was Laurie Colwin San Francisco Chronicle In this stunning volume which gathers together her three brilliant story collections the beloved author of Home Cooking explores the mysteries of life and love with her signature blend of empathy wisdom and wit Passion and Affect From two ornithologists who find their own mating habits to be just as inscrutable as those of their avian subjects to a lonely husband whose search for exotic hobbies leads him to television junk food and a young woman with Technicolor green hair the heroes and heroines of Colwin's debut story collection are clever naïve brave delicate and fickle In other words they are profoundly human and their precisely observed warmly intelligent stories capture nothing less than what it means to be alive in the modern world The Lone Pilgrim In the title story of this elegant and insightful collection a book illustrator meets the man of her dreams and struggles to say goodbye to her old self A Mythological Subject is the tale of an adulterous affair that arrives unexpected and unwanted like a natural disaster but is no mistake A Girl Skating is a delicate and haunting portrait of the unbridgeable divide between life and art poetry and nature One reads with fascination the steps by which lovers in one story after another stumble upon their forthright declarations The New York Times Book Review Another Marvelous Thing These witty literate and intelligent linked stories are told from the alternating perspectives of two adulterous lovers The New York Times Book Review Josephine Billy Delielle and Francis Clemens are economists married to other people but the similarities end there He is fastidious she is a slob He delights in good food and fine wine her refrigerator is always empty He is old and sentimental she is young and tough minded Charting their electrifying affair from beginning to end this exquisite story collection tackles the thorniest of subjects with honesty grace and humor The Troll Garden, and Selected

Stories Willa Cather, 2020-03-06 This collection of Willa Cather stories her first book of fiction and the capstone of her early career is as relevant today as at the time of its initial publication As different and individually distinguished as the seven stories may be they share as their subject the role and status of the artist in American society The passions ambitions and pretensions the cant and the pathos of the art world artists pseudo artists aficionados and dilettantes all are amply represented here in the midst of their foibles grand affairs and failures drawn with great style and subtlety by a writer gathering her formidable powers With the psychological precision of her early master Henry James and the practical wisdom and wit of her contemporary Edith Wharton Cather shows us innocents seduced sophisticates undone marriages sundered idealism compromised and the rare soul uplifted by art Goodreads Collected Stories Isaak Babel', 1994 Collects stories by Isaac Babel including In the Basement Awakening The Sun of Italy and My First Goose and features notes on the text

Collected Stories Marta Randall, 2007-09 Marta Randall is a sensational subtle precise and gorgeous writer Karen Joy Fowler author of The Jane Austen Book Club 12 previously uncollected stories by writer and teacher Marta Randall including Lapidary Nights The Dark Boy Lzaro y Antonio Big Dome Sea Changes On Cannon Beach and Nebula Award finalist Dangerous Games Collected Stories I Wells H.G., 2018 Herbert George Wells 1866 1946 was an English writer He was prolific in many genres writing dozens of novels short stories and works of social commentary but he is now best remembered for his science fiction novels This volume contains some of his most wonderful short stories including a short ghost story The Red Room and The Country of the Blind a story of a country which is cut off from the rest of the world The isolated community prospered over the years despite a disease that struck them early on rendering all newborns blind The New Zealand Short Story Collection Marion McLeod, Bill Manhire, 1997 Combines outstanding contemporary New Zealand fiction with some of the best from the past The New Zealand of these stories is not the country presented in glossy brochures but a real place that can only be described with accuracy and vision by the imagination
