The Dividing Of Women Or Womans Lot:

The Dividing of Women, Or, Woman's Lot Eugénie Lemoine-Luccioni, 1987 Shifting Scenes Alice Jardine, Anne M. Menke, 1991 This now classic work is the only definitive collection available of interviews with leading French women intellectuals The Mother's Hands: Desire, Fantasy and the Inheritance of the Maternal Massimo Recalcati, 2019-06-04 In this book the bestselling author and psychoanalyst Massimo Recalcati offers a fundamental re-examination of what being a mother means today in a world where new social and sexual freedoms mean that motherhood is no longer the sole destiny of women Questioning the belief that a mother's love is natural and unconditional he paints a more complex and troubling picture of the mother-child relationship observing that mothers may even resent their children as a result of unresolved conflicts between different dimensions of love The mother's hands not only nurture but can also potentially harm Recalcati argues that it is precisely in these competing demands that motherhood fulfils its function only if the mother is not all mother can a child experience the absence that enables it to access the symbolic and cultural world Recalcati cuts through conventional wisdom to offer a fresh perspective on the changing nature of motherhood today An international bestseller this book will appeal to a wide general readership as well as to students and scholars of gender studies psychoanalysis and related disciplines National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1988 Report of the Division of Women's and Professional Projects for the Period Ending... United States Works Progress Administration (N.J.), 1936 Vital Signs Charles Shepherdson, 2002-05-03 Vital Signs offers a radical new understanding of the role of psychoanalytic theory in contemporary French thought Drawing on the work of Lacan Kristeva Foucault and lesser known thinkers Eugénie Lemoine Luccioni and Catherine Millot Shepherdson argues that we have misinterpreted the nature/culture distinction in relation to psychoanalysis He shows how the constitution of subject and the phenomenon of the body are irreducible to this distinction and argues that the reception of French psychoanalysis has been wrongly governed by the debate between biological models and symbolic theories of social construction Shepherdson approaches this dilemma through a series of specific topics using both theoretical texts and clinical material The topics discussed transsexualism anorexia maternity and femininity allow the author to bridge the gulf between theory and clinical practice and to distinguish psychoanalysis from its disciplinary neighbors in contemporary social theory Vital Signs will be of interest to philosophers psychoanalysts and those involved in literary and cultural studies A Cultural History of Pregnancy C. Hanson, 2004-06-11 Hanson explores the different ways in which pregnancy has been constructed and interpreted in Britain over the last 250 years Drawing on a wide range of sources including obstetric texts pregnancy advice books literary texts popular fiction and visual images she analyzes changing attitudes to key issues such as the relative rights of mother and foetus and the degree to which medical intervention is acceptable in pregnancy Hanson also considers the effects of medical and social changes on the subjective experience of pregnancy Representing the Woman Elizabeth

Cowie,1997-01-10 Representing the Woman Cinema and Psychoanalysis examines the theory and politics of representation in narrative film Questioning current accounts of cinema s pleasures for men and women Elizabeth Cowie draws on the psychoanalytic theory of Freud and Lacan to propose a new understanding of the relation of identification fantasy and the drives and of voyeurism and fetishism to the pleasures of cinema and to the making of the feminine and masculine spectators of film Concerning the Rites of Psychoanalysis, Or, The Villa of the Mysteries Bice Benvenuto,1994 This is the first book that looks at Lacanian psychoanalysis in the context of the clinic Drawing on her twelve years of clinical practice Bice Benvenuto offers an exciting and undiscovered Lacan who helps make sense of our symptoms and our lives Benvenuto brings both the clinical and the symbolic threads together in a new theory of feminine sexuality which takes up where Lacan drew the veil This book will appeal to students academics and practitioners in psychoanalysis literary criticism gender and feminist studies psychology and philosophy and anyone interested in the practical application of Lacan s work The Healing of Trauma during Pregnancy, Birth, and the First Years of Life Norma Tracey,2023-01-24 The Healing of Trauma during Pregnancy Birth and the First Years of Life From Dreaming to Being focuses on the inner world of the woman in the creative processes of pregnancy birth and early life and the healing of the traumas of this period It gives an in depth understanding of the Aboriginal woman during pregnancy birth and infancy and the effects of culture and transgenerational trauma on these processes
