The Doctors Confession:

The Doctor's Confession Elizabeth Seifert, 1968 The Sacrament of Confession as a William Schmitt, 2001 Adrienne von Speyr in her book Confession and throughout her writings speaks of the confession of Jesus Christ This is a startling use of the term because Christ never sinned The author examines all the writings of von Speyr in the light of Roman Catholic soteriology and sacramental theology and in view of the influences that existed between her and Hans Urs von Balthasar The author then shows how the theme of confession is central to von Speyr's writing aids in illuminating her theology of Holy Saturday and the Paschal Mystery and serves as the basis for the renewal of the sacrament of confession Confessional Subjects Susan David Bernstein, 2000-11-09 Susan Bernstein examines the gendered power relationships embedded in confessional literature of the Victorian period Exploring this dynamic in Charlotte Brontë's Villette Mary Elizabeth Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret George Eliot's Daniel Deronda and Thomas Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles she argues that although women's disclosures to male confessors repeatedly depict wrongdoing committed against them they themselves are viewed as the transgressors Bernstein emphasizes the secularization of confession but she also places these narratives within the context of the anti-Catholic tract literature of the time Based on cultural criticism poststructuralism and feminist theory Bernstein's analysis constitutes a reassessment of Freud's and Foucault's theories of confession In addition her study of the anti-Catholic propaganda of the mid-nineteenth century and its portrayal of confession provides historical background to the meaning of domestic confessions in the literature of the second half of the century Originally published in 1997 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The Psychology of Interrogations and Confessions Gisli H. Confessions of an English Doctor, 1904 The Reality Effect Joel Black, 2013-08-21 It used to be only movies were on film now the whole world is The most intimate and most banal moments of our lives are constantly recorded for public consumption In The Reality Effect Joel Black argues that the desire to make visible every aspect of our lives is an impulse derived from cinema one that has made life both more graphic and less real He approaches film as a documentary medium that has obscured if not obliterated the line between reality and fiction To illustrate this effect Black traces the uncanny interplay between movies and real life events through a series of comparative analyses from Lolita and the murder of JonBenét Ramsey to Wag the Dog and the Clinton scandal to Crash and Princess Diana's violent death Confessions and Police Detention United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, 1958

The Culture of Confession from Augustine to Foucault Chloe Taylor, 2010-05-26 Drawing on the work of Foucault and Western confessional writings this book challenges the transhistorical and commonsense views of confession as an innate impulse resulting in the psychological liberation of the confessing subject Instead confessional desire is argued to be contingent and constraining and alternatives to confessional subjectivity are explored God and Self in the Confessional Novel John D. Sykes, Jr., 2018-06-08 God and Self in the Confessional Novel explores the question what happened to the theological practice of confession when it entered the modern novel Beginning with the premise that guilt remains a universal human concern this book considers confession via the classic confessional texts of Augustine and Rousseau Employing this framework John D Sykes Jr examines Goethe's The Sorrows of Young Werther Dostoevsky's Notes from Underground Percy's Lancelot and McEwan's Atonement to investigate the evolution of confession and guilt in literature from the eighteenth century to the early twenty first century
