The Dogs of Avalon Laura Schenone, 2017-08-22 Named a Best Book of the Year by The Bark magazine After adopting an Irish sight hound Laura Schenone discovers a remarkable and little known fight to gain justice for dogs and for all animals Greyhounds bred to be the fastest racing dogs on earth are streaks of lightning Beautiful astonishing creatures countless numbers of them disappear each year once they can no longer compete and win The Dogs of Avalon introduces us to the strong willed Marion Fitzgibbon born in rural Ireland where animals are valued only for their utility But Fitzgibbon believes that suffering is felt by all creatures and she champions the cause of strays baffling those around her including her family as she and a group of local women rescue any animal in need and taking on increasingly risky missions When Fitzgibbon becomes head of the Irish Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and focuses on the cause of the greyhound she faces an entrenched racing industry protected by money and power She joins forces with an American greyhound activist a foxhunter's wife a British lady and an influential German animal rescuer to create an international network to find these animals homes confront the racing industry and provide safe havens where animals can live in peace The Dogs of Avalon brings forward the people on the other side of the tracks Irish Travellers a people whose Celtic history goes back centuries dogmen who hope to win big together with a host of animals on two continents circus tigers in Ireland wild monkeys in the Yucatan dolphins in a marine animal park in Florida and one very special Irish sight hound in New Jersey named Lily In this potent David and Goliath story Schenone's journey helps us understand our deep connection to animals and gives us inspiration in the form of the unforgettable Fitzgibbon who grapples with compassion and activism and shows the difference we are all capable of making in the world

Britain's Dog Crisis Joan Martin, 1993* Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D. Cummins, 2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind's greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the

Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world The Dog and Man: A Timeless Bond Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-18
