The Domestic Dog James Serpell, 1995 A scientific analysis of dogs their behaviour and their relationships with humans First Friend Katharine Rogers, 2010-04 Dogs have shared our homes for as long as we can remember and in return have guarded us helped us hunt and herded our livestock They have generally been our friends as well that is what most of them are today Canine friends give us uncritical affection free of the ambivalence that plagues human relationships Dogs figure prominently in literature starting with Homer's Argus the hound who remembered Odysseus after twenty years Victorian novels are full of vivid canine characters Ms Rogers is impressively thorough best of all the author knows and respects dogs Steve Goode Washington Times The Pig Who Sang to the Moon Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson, 2007-12-18 Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson's groundbreaking bestseller When Elephants Weep was the first book since Darwin's time to explore emotions in the animal kingdom particularly from animals in the wild Now he focuses exclusively on the contained world of the farm animal revealing startling irrefutable evidence that barnyard creatures have feelings too even consciousness Weaving history literature anecdotes scientific studies and Masson s own vivid experiences observing pigs cows sheep goats and chickens over the course of five years this important book at last gives voice meaning and dignity to these gentle beasts that are bred to be milked shorn butchered and eaten Can we ever know what makes an animal happy Many animal behaviorists say no But Jeffrey Masson has a different view An animal is happy if it can live according to its own nature Farm animals suffer greatly in this regard Chickens for instance like to perch in trees at night to avoid predators and to nestle with friends The obvious conclusion They cannot be happy when confined twenty to a cage From field and barn to pen and coop Masson bears witness to the emotions and intelligence of these remarkable farm animals each unique with distinct qualities Curious intelligent self reliant many will find it hard to believe that these attributes describe a pig In fact there is much that humans share with pigs They dream know their names and can see colors Mother cows mourn the loss of their calves when their babies are taken away to slaughter Given a choice between food that is nutritious or lacking in minerals sheep will select the former balancing their diet and correcting the deficiency Goats display quite a sense of humor dignity and fearlessness Indian goats have been known to kill leopards Chickens are naturally sociable they will gather around a human companion and stand there serenely preening themselves or sit quietly on the ground beside someone they trust For far too long farm animals have been denigrated and treated merely as creatures of instinct rather than as sentient beings Shattering the abhorrent myth of the dumb animal without feelings Jeffrey Masson has written a revolutionary book that is sure to stir human emotions far and wide

The Animal Estate Harriet Ritvo, 1989-01-01 Harriet Ritvo gives us a vivid picture of how animals figured in English thinking during the nineteenth century and by extension how they served as metaphors for human psychological needs and sociopolitical aspirations

Dog Susan McHugh, 2004-08-04 Dogs are perhaps our most popular pets and certainly one of the best loved of all animals They are not only humanity s best friend they are also its oldest burial sites dating back 12 000 years indicate that dogs moved alongside prehistoric peoples before during and after both species settled the world The story of the canine has been fundamentally entwined with that of humanity since the earliest times and this ancient and fascinating story is told in Susan McHugh s Dog This book unravels the debate about whether dogs are descended from wolves and moves on to deal with canines in mythology religion and health dog cults in ancient and medieval civilizations as disparate as Alaska Greece Peru and Persia and traces correspondences between the histories of dogs in the Far East Europe Africa and the Americas Dog also examines the relatively recent phenomenon of dog breeding and the invention of species as well as the canine s role in science fact and fiction from Laika the first astronaut and Pavlov s famous conditioned dogs through to science fiction novels and cult films such as A Boy and his Dog Susan McHugh shows how dogs today contribute to human lives in a huge number of ways not only as pets and guide dogs but also as sources of food in Asia entertainment workers and scientific and religious objects Dog reveals how we have shaped these animals over the millennia and in turn how dogs have shaped us The Routledge History of the Domestic Sphere in Europe Joachim Eibach, Margareth Lanzinger, 2020-12-29

This book addresses the multifaceted history of the domestic sphere in Europe from the Age of Reformation to the emergence of modern society By focusing on daily practice interaction and social relations it shows continuities and social change in European history from an interior perspective The Routledge History of the Domestic Sphere in Europe contains a variety of approaches from different regions that each pose a challenge to commonplace views such as the emergence of confessional cultures of private life and of separate spheres of men and women By analyzing a plethora of manifold sources including diaries court records paintings and domestic advice literature this volume provides an overview of the domestic sphere as a location of work and consumption conflict and cooperation emotions and intimacy and devotion and education The book sheds light on changing relations between spouses parents and children masters and servants or apprentices and humans and animals or plants thereby exceeding the notion of the modern nuclear family This volume will be of great use to upper level graduates postgraduates and experienced scholars interested in the history of family household social space gender emotions material culture work and private life in early modern and nineteenth century Europe The Cambridge World

History of Food Kenneth F. Kiple, Kriemhild Coneè Ornelas, 2000 A two volume set which traces the history of food and nutrition from the beginning of human life on earth through the present The Routledge Companion to

Animal-Human History Hilda Kean, Philip Howell, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Companion to Animal Human History provides an up to date guide for the historian working within the growing field of animal human history Giving a sense of the diversity and interdisciplinary nature of the field cutting edge contributions explore the practices of and challenges posed by historical studies of animals and animal human relationships Divided into three parts the Companion takes both a theoretical and practical approach to a field that is emerging as a prominent area of study Animals and the Practice of History considers established practices of history such as political history public history and cultural memory and how animal human history can contribute to them Problems and Paradigms identifies key historiographical issues to the field with contributors considering the challenges posed by topics such as agency literature art and emotional attachment The final section Themes and Provocations looks at larger themes within the history of animal human relationships in more depth with contributions covering topics that include breeding war hunting and eating As it is increasingly recognised that nonhuman actors have contributed to the making of history The Routledge Companion to Animal Human History provides a timely and important contribution to the scholarship on animal human history and surrounding debates
