The Down Easters Basil Lubbock, 1987 The Down Easters : American Deep-water Sailing Ships, 1869-1929
Alfred Basil Lubbock, 1963 The Down Easters Basil Lubbock, 1929 Down East: An Illustrated History of Maritime Maine (2) Lincoln Paine, 2018-06-19 From the first explorers to the century of ships to our modern fisheries and diversification Maine's maritime story is told in engaging detail Lincoln Paine has laid down the framework for an understanding of Maine's maritime history by relating the population and landscape of today to their historic foundations This engaging overview of Maine's maritime history ranges from early Native American travel and fishing to pre Plymouth European settlements wars international trade shipbuilding boom and bust fisheries immigrant quarrymen quick lime production yachting and modern port facilities all unfolding against one of the most dramatic seascapes on the planet Down East can be read in an evening but will be referred to again and again When the first edition was published in 2000 Walter Cronkite a veteran Maine coastal sailor as well as The Most Trusted Man in America wrote that Paine's economy of phrase and clarity of purpose make this book a delight Paine went on to write his monumental opus The Sea and Civilization A Maritime History of the World PW starred review but now returns to his first and most abiding love the coast of Maine to revise and update this gem of a book The new edition is printed in a large full color format with a stunning complement of historical photos paintings charts and illustrations making this a truly visual journey along a storied coast Bulletin of the Maine State Library Maine State Library, 1926 A Global History of Gold Rushes Benjamin Mountford, Stephen Tuffnell, 2018-10-16 Nothing set the world in motion like gold Between the discovery of California placer gold in 1848 and the rush to Alaska fifty years later the search for the precious yellow metal accelerated worldwide circulations of people goods capital and technologies A Global History of Gold Rushes brings together historians of the United States Africa Australasia and the Pacific World to tell the rich story of these nineteenth century gold rushes from a global perspective Gold was central to the growth of capitalism it whetted the appetites of empire builders mobilized the integration of global markets and economies profoundly affected the environment and transformed large scale migration patterns Together these essays tell the story of fifty years that changed the world The Persistence of Sail in the Age of Steam Donna J. Souza, 2013-06-29 In Archaeology Under Water 1966 19 pioneer nautical archaeologist George Bass pointed out how much easier it is to train someone who is already an archaeologist to become a diver than to take trained divers and teach them to do archaeology While this is generally true there have also been occasions when well trained and enthusiastic sport divers have been willing to accept the training and discipline necessary to conduct good archaeological science becoming first rate scholars in the process Dr Donna Souza's book is the product of just such a transition It shows how a sport diver and volunteer fieldworker can proceed through a rigorous graduate program to achieve research results that are convincing in their own right and point toward new directions in the discipline as a whole What is new in this book for maritime archaeology Perhaps the most obvious and important feature of Dr Souza's archaeological and historical analysis of the wreck at Pulaski Reef and its contemporaries in the Dry Tortugas National Park Florida is the way it serves as a means to a larger end namely an understanding of the social history of the transition from sail to steam in late nineteenth century maritime commerce in America The relationship between changes in technology and culture is a classic theme in anthropology and this study extends the theme into the domain of underwater archaeology
