The Dragon Man Inspector Challis Mysteries:

The Dragon Man Garry Disher, 2004 Detective Inspector Hal Challis and his crew searching for a serial killer operating in a beachside town outside Melbourne Australia feel a new sense of urgency when the daughter of one of the police sergeants is abducted DRAGONMAN: A DETECTIVE INSPECTOR CHALLIS MURDER MYSTERY Garry Disher, 2004

Australian Crime Fiction Stephen Knight, 2018-06-28 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country's origins as an 18th century English prison colony. Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted. Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume's 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne. The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police. Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives. The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre Encyclopedia of Pulp Fiction Writers Lee Server, 2014-05-14

Provides an introduction to American pulp fiction during the twentieth century with brief author biographies and lists of their works Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Library Journal , 2004 Overland , 2000 Genreflecting Diana Tixier Herald, Samuel Stavole-Carter, 2019-05-24 Librarians who work with readers will find this well loved guide to be a treasure trove of information. With descriptive annotations of thousands of genre titles mapped by genre and subgenre this is the readers advisor's go to reference. Next to author genre is the characteristic that readers use most to select reading material and the most trustworthy consideration for finding books readers will enjoy. With its detailed classification and pithy descriptions of titles this book gives users valuable insights into what makes genre fiction appeal to readers. It is an invaluable aid for helping readers find books that they will enjoy reading. Providing a handy roadmap to popular genre literature this guide helps librarians answer the perennial and often confounding question: What can I read next? Herald and Stavole-Carter briefly describe thousands of popular fiction titles classifying them into standard genres such as science fiction, fantasy, romance, historical fiction, and mystery. Within each genre titles are broken down into more specific subgenres and themes. Detailed author title and subject indexes provide further access. As in previous editions the focus of the guide is on recent releases and perennial reader favorites. In addition to covering new titles this edition focuses more narrowly on the core genres and includes basic readers advisory principles and techniques Kittyhawk Down Garry Disher, 2006-07-01 From the two time winner of the Ned Kelly Award and the German Crime Fiction Critix Circle Prize. A missing two year old girl, an unidentified drowning victim, arson, and the threat of murder bring Homicide Squad Inspector Hal Challis of the Mornington Peninsula Police Force and his staff to Bushrangers.
