Dynamics of Modernization Daniel F. Davis, 1972 Unfinished Agenda Manning Nash, 2019-03-18 Based on comprehensive anthropological field work and uniting ethnographic material with broader generalizations about the processes of modernization this book presents an analysis of social change since decolonization in Latin America the Middle East and particularly in Southeast Asia Professor Nash focuses on societies that are attempting to The Rise and Fall of Communism in Russia Robert V. Daniels, 2008-10-01 Distinguished historian of the Soviet period Robert V Daniels offers a penetrating survey of the evolution of the Soviet system and its ideology In a tightly woven series of analyses written during his career long inquiry into the Soviet Union Daniels explores the Soviet experience from Karl Marx to Boris Yeltsin and shows how key ideological notions were altered as Soviet history unfolded The book exposes a long history of American misunderstanding of the Soviet Union leading up to the grand surprise of its collapse in 1991 Daniels s perspective is always original and his assessments some worked out years ago are strikingly prescient in the light of post 1991 archival revelations Soviet Communism evolved and decayed over the decades Daniels argues through a prolonged revolutionary process combined with the challenges of modernization and the personal struggles between ideologues and power grabbers

Modernization Science Chuanqi He, 2012-02-18 Depending on their national level of income development and modernization all countries in the world can be generally categorized as either advanced or developing Studies on why advanced countries continue to develop how they maintain their level of development and how developing countries enter into the advanced club fall into the field of modernization science which is an emerging interdisciplinary science This monograph the first English book available on modernization science interprets its concepts methodologies general theories first and second modernization six level specific six field specific and three sector specific modernizations modernization policy and evaluation and the principles and methods of national development since the 18th century It provides clear systematic up to date information on this new discipline with more than 173 figures and 265 tables and covers 131 countries and 97% of the global population A comprehensive outlook on world modernization is presented from a Chinese perspective

Global Modernities Mike Featherstone, Scott Lash, Roland Robertson, 1995-06-05 Global Modernities is a sustained commentary on the international character of the most microcosmic practices It demonstrates how the global increasingly informs the regional so deconstructing ideas like the nation state and national sovereignty The spatialization of social theory hybridization and bio politics are among the critical issues discussed Secularization and China's Modernization Zhongmin Wu, 2024-12-17 This open access book examines from the perspective of secularization Since the publication of Max Weber's Protestant Ethics and the Spirit of Capitalism how to realize modernization in developing countries has become an urgent problem to be demonstrated Secularization has becoming endogenous power for Chinese modernization procedure especially since 1978 However to understand the foundation of secularization it is inevitable to tracing back to Chinese history This approach contains critical analysis and profound insight to illuminate the essence of secularization in contemporary Chinese context The author also applies the comparative approach by comparing with Protestant ethics in many Western European countries the significance of secularization has been emphasized The widespread and intense secularization boosts China into the trend modernization that covers nearly all aspects of society This book is in need for those who intended to discern the truth of Chinese modernization It is also a key tool of reflecting modernization and development in a broader sense

The Modernisation of Russia, 1676-1825 Simon Dixon, 1999-07-29 This is the first book to place Russia's long eighteenth century squarely in its European context The conceptual framework is set out in an opening critique of modernisation which while rejecting its linear implications maintains its focus on the relationship between government economy and society Following a chronological introduction a series of thematic chapters covering topics such as finance and taxation society government and politics culture ideology and economy emphasise the ways in which Russia's international ambitions as an emerging great power provoked administrative and fiscal reforms with wide ranging and often unanticipated social consequences This thematic analysis allows Simon Dixon to demonstrate that the more the tsars tried to modernise their state the more backward their empire became A chronology and critical bibliography are also provided to allow students to discover more about this colourful period of Russian history
