Early Childhood Education in the Mediterranean ,2025-05-22 The existing body of comparative studies on ECEC in the Mediterranean region has received little attention from the academic community The chapters in this book make a significant contribution by providing prospective readers with a comprehensive overview of the current state of affairs in the region highlighting the challenges faced by ECEC and stimulating further discourse and research on the future of the sector In addition the chapters in this volume represent a diverse and important collection reflecting the unique characteristics of the respective countries Contributors are Bassel Akar Anies Al Hroub Elina Antoniou Sofia Avgitidou Ebru Ayd n Nicoletta Niki Christodoulou Rahime Cobanoglu Thomas Cook Fetiye Erbil Abdelbasit Gadour Mine G l G ven G l in G lmez Thanaa Hashem Reem Jawabreh Pandelis Kiprianos Mohamed Miliani Soheil Salha Valerie Sollars Maura Striano Habib Tiliouine Nasser Tolba Ziya Toprak Mehmet Toran Adrijana Vi nji Jevti Ivana Viskovi and Farah El Zein Early Childhood Curriculum Nancy Amanda Branscombe,Jan Gunnels Burcham,Kathryn Castle,Elaine Surbeck,2013-07-24 Through its unique integration of curriculum and learning principles Early Childhood Curriculum A Constructivist Perspective 2nd Edition fosters authentic developmentally appropriate practice for both preschool and early elementary classrooms The constructivist format of this book encourages active involvement on the part of readers by asking them to observe question reflect research and analyze thus allowing readers to create their own knowledge through their responses and actions Early Childhood Curriculum examines curricular goals such as autonomy development and problem solving and links those goals with constructivist principles of learning. It explores ways teachers can create meaningful learning environments and choose curriculum tasks appropriately in all content areas that are linked to the learning and development needs of young children. The text provides a wealth of practical detail about implementing constructivist curriculum as the authors discuss classroom climate and management, room design, play and cooperative learning among other topics. The book also includes information about how teachers can meet required mandates and national and state standards in appropriate ways as they plan their curriculum and examines the early childhood educator's role with community agencies, reform and legal mandates and public relations. Special Features Curriculum Strategies highlight models for developing curriculum including projects, curricular alignment, integration of various subject matter areas and types of knowledge. Constructions promote problem solving by allowing students to explore, revisit, examine and learn from first hand experience. Multiple Perspectives from the Field provide interviews with teachers and other early childhood professionals offering students a realistic look at the profession from a diverse group of educators. Teacher Dialogues explore a wide range of student concerns including curriculum, learning environments, assessment and documentation, representing a collaborative support group for pre-service teachers and readers.

I'm Not Getting Them Ready for Kindergarten Kristen Day, 2024-12-30 Teachers don't have to cut out penguin beaks anymore. You can put your weather bear back in the cupboard or bring it outside and you can take the behavior chart off the wall. This book is your permission slip to break up with outdated and ineffective practices in your early childhood classroom and replace them with the magic of play-based learning. This helpful guide challenges outdated preschool practices in a kind and compelling way, inviting you to reflect on your own practices and adjust them based on current research and what is truly developmentally appropriate for young children. It provides tools and language to use to show the people outside your classroom—parents, administrators, other teachers down the hall—that play is learning. Each chapter is practical, conscience and meant to be read in the order and at the pace that is best for you and your class. Full of stories from the author's own play journey, I'm Not Getting Them Ready for Kindergarten is key reading for early childhood educators who are ready to step outside the restrictions of an unnecessarily academic system and settle into the magic of play and child-led learning.

Early Childhood Educational Research Carol Aubrey, Tricia David, Ray Godfrey, Linda Thompson, 2005-12-01 Provision of education for children under five has recently become a political concern. At the same time, this relatively small field has been attracting increased research attention with many early years practitioners seeking routes to initial and higher degrees. This book offers essential guidance for researchers and newcomers to the field, outlining opportunities in research as well as useful, sensitive and appropriate methods for researching childhood education.
