Science Fiction Magazine Story Index, 1926-1995 Terry A. Murray, 1999 Since the appearance of the first science fiction magazine in 1926 thousands of short stories have been published in periodicals devoted to the genre These stories cover a wide range of subjects from spacecraft to the human condition and feature little known authors as well as masters like Ellison and Asimov In the past finding which issue of what magazine ran a certain story was nearly impossible This much needed reference tool provides valuable assistance in the daunting task of locating short stories published in science fiction magazines providing exhaustive indexes to magazines authors and titles allowing a variety of options for research on 34 000 stories appearing in nearly 5 000 issues of 133 genre magazines Stories from all major American publications as well as from several minor periodicals are indexed Also included is an appendix of the best known and most prolific contributors giving the titles of all their stories in this work necessary because the huge author index does not show titles A guide to how to use this book clarifies its features for the researcher

Queer Horror Sean Abley, Tyler Doupé, 2023-12-21 From the beginning horror has been part of the cinema landscape Despite some of the earliest genre films with gay directors such as F W Murnau Nosferatu and James Whale Frankenstein The Invisible Man Bride of Frankenstein LGBTQIA characters have rarely been portrayed in full view For decades filmmakers have included coded content in their films with the homosexual experience translated into censor friendly subtext for consumption by general audiences Gradually LGBTQIA characters and themes have moved from the background to the foreground as the horror genre has grown along with its audience s tastes and attitudes Likewise more and more LGBTQIA writers and directors have begun to offer their queer centric takes on scary movies and today queer horror is a thriving film genre With more than 900 entries this critical filmography is a comprehensive critical yet playful examination of the history of LGBTQIA content in horror films Eight journalistic contributors dig into every era of scary movies including the early silents pre and post Hays Code content grindhouse sleaze LGBTQIA indies and megaplex studio releases From Whale s The Old Dark House 1932 to Don Mancini s Chucky films and everything in between this collection explores what can be found at the intersection of LGBTQIA and horror in the film industry
