literary agent in 1898 The changing preferences of a growing audience of readers along with James s self defeating practice of shifting from publisher to publisher rather than adhering to the trade courtesy of remaining loyal to one house were making the author's efforts to keep his work in print increasingly difficult bringing Pinker who managed the literary business of over 100 authors including Stephen Crane H G Wells Joseph Conrad and Jack London into the picture made it possible for James to maintain a presence before the reading public to an extent that would have been impossible without the agent s assistance Pinker's involvement was vital to the continuance of James's career as his later works and the New York Edition proved difficult material to place The agent's role as the mediator of conflict between the commercial writer and literary artist positions that James had difficulty reconciling had considerable influence on the shape of James s later career and thus the way in which the author is remembered James's legacy is therefore clearly tied to Pinker's efforts Using correspondence between Pinker James and the primary publishers of James s material from 1898 until Pinker s death in 1922 along with secondary works addressing the agent's endeavors during this period this volume demonstrates the link between Pinker's work and James s continued presence in print both during the author s lifetime and after his death Masculinities in Irish Literature and Visual Culture Michaela Schrage-Früh, Tony Tracy, 2022-07-14 This book engages with ageing masculinities in Irish literature and visual culture including fiction drama poetry painting and documentary Exploring the shifting representations of older men from the early twentieth century to the present the contributors analyse how a broad range of literary and visual texts construct reinscribe or challenge perceptions of older age In doing so they trace a shift from depictions of authority figures often symbolising patriarchal dominance and oppression to more nuanced complex and heterogeneous explorations of older men s embodied subjectivities and vulnerabilities Exploring artists and writers such as Se n Keating J M Synge Teresa Deevy Marina Carr Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Derek Mahon Kate O Brien John Banville Colm T ib n Bernard MacLaverty Mike McCormack Anne Griffin and Claire Keegan the chapters in this book attend to the symbolic as well as social significance of older men in Irish cultural expression Transforming Henry James Anna De Biasio, Anna Despotopoulou, Chryssoula Lascaratou, 2014-09-26 Employing a wide range of interpretive and theoretical approaches this collection brings together distinguished James scholars from four continents to elicit new and exciting readings of a diverse array of James's fiction and non fiction Through their transformative acts the essays investigate James s life long engagement with cities places and tourist sites offer theoretically informed readings of his work s textual richness and explore his intricate involvement with social and cultural issues such as gender and sexuality economics friendship and hospitality and visual culture Arranged under rubrics which signal the complex interrelations of Henry James as a historical individual and of the works he authored with a web of social cultural aesthetic and philosophical discourses the contributions collected in this book make a convincing case for the ongoing productivity of James s oeuvre when interrogated from new critical angles and therefore for its enduring centrality to the concerns of literary and cultural studies
