British Sport: Local histories Richard William Cox, 2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian International Sport: A

Bibliography, 1995-1999 Richard William Cox, 2004-04-22 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new

British Sport - A Bibliography to 2000 Richard Cox, 2014-02-04 Volume two of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian The Official Story of Arsenal's Double Year Kevin Connolly, 1998 A Football Compendium Peter J. Seddon, Cynthia McKinley, British Library, 1999 This bibliography is an entertaining and knowledgeable tribute to the beautiful game The second edition features over 2000 new entries including greatly increased coverage of football films and music making over 7000 references to books and other items in total The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Hard Tackles and Dirty Baths George Best, 2011-12-31 We were the first generation to have to deal with the modern stardom of football Some handled it better than others George Best Written in the months before he died Hard Tackles and Dirty Baths is George's farewell letter to the great footballing era in which he burned so brightly a personal history of the golden years before TV and agents changed everything From the breaking of the maximum wage to the cusp of the first million pound player it follows the triumphs and tragedies of every season from 1960 to 1974 It is the story of our greatest footballing generation Greaves Moore Law Charlton Osgood Lorimer Jennings Hurst and of course Best himself Money Can't Buy Us Love Gavin Buckland, 2019-08-08 In 1960 the wealthy owner of the Merseyside based Littlewoods corporation John Moores took control of Everton Football Club setting in motion a chain of events that still affect the game in this country today Everton had enjoyed success before Moores's takeover but things would never be the same again from the moment he walked through Goodison's doors Although big clubs had spent money before none had done so with such naked short term ambition and a ruthlessness to succeed that sent shockwaves through the previously stagnant world of English football The new owner's ruthless streak was personified by his first major move sacking the popular Johnny Carey in the back of a London taxi in April 1961 Everton would finish that 1960 61 season in fifth place their highest position since World War Two but the Irishman's affable nature cost him his job In his place Moores wanted a man in his own image to lead the club forward and he soon found him Harry Catterick Catterick was little over 40 years old and had been an Everton player himself only ten years before But as a boss he exuded an aura that demanded respect and obedience from his players It was a characteristic that won him few fans but plenty of trophies and across the decade Everton reasserted themselves as one of English football's powerhouses winning two league titles and an FA Cup Catterick's ability to nurture young products of the club's youth set up such as Colin Harvey and Joe Royle was trumped only by his mastery of the transfer market allowing him to sign the great Howard Kendall from Preston North End and World Cup winner Alan Ball from under his rivals noses Harvey Kendall and Ball would soon form the club's greatest midfield trio and their brilliance would underpin the 1969 70 title win a victory for free flowing football in an era of cynicism That trophy would be Everton's last major honour for 14 years In Money Can't Buy Us Love Everton's official statistician Gavin Buckland tells the tale of how Moores and manager Harry Catterick took the so called Mersey Millionaires to the summit of English football in the context of the major cultural changes of the time The book provides a forensic character study of both Catterick and Moores and also delves into the archives to provide a definitive account of the incidents that rocked the club in a fruitful but turbulent decade including allegations of doping in the 1962 63 campaign the 1964 match fixing scandal which signalled the end of Tony Kay's career and the shock sale of Alan Ball Money Can't Buy Us Love offers fascinating insight into how strong personalities can take a team to the very top but can also cause in its ultimate downfall Sport in Britain Richard William Cox,1991 Highbury Bruce Smith,2012-11-30 Highbury citadel for Arsenal Football Club for over 90 years and home to the memories of over 10 000 matches In this informative book Bruce Smith exhaustively chronicles the life and times of the Gunners home ground in north London from the site's humble beginnings as college playing fields to its present status as one of the most recognisable pieces of football real estate in the world The book highlights how pioneering architects such as Archibald Leitch Claude Waterlow Ferrier and William Binnie played a vital role in shaping Highbury and how other personalities including Sir Henry Norris A G Kearney Herbert Chapman and David Dein have influenced its development Highbury documents the important role and influence of the Football League Premiership FA Cup and European competitions in the ground's colourful history and in addition details the England internationals representative encounters FA Cup semi finals and European play offs which have taken place there as well as the legendary Cooper v Clay World Championship bout of 1966 Featuring many personal photographs by the author and others from the archives Highbury is a timely tribute to an iconic structure that was part of the fabric of sporting history for almost a century Eddie Turnbull Eddie Turnbull,Martin Hannan,2012-06-29 As the first British player to score a goal in European club competition in 1955 Hibs hero Eddie Turnbull holds a unique place in footballing history In Eddie Turnbull Having a Ball he charts his extraordinary career and tells the story of his eventful life so far Turnbull explains how he became one fifth of the most celebrated forward line ever to grace Scottish football the Famous Five of Hibernian FC and reveals how he had to wait until he was eighty two to be awarded his first international cap despite having played for Scotland nine times throughout the forties and fifties After his playing career ended Turnbull achieved lasting fame as manager of Aberdeen and his beloved Hibs Turnbull's Tornadoes beat Jock Stein's Celtic side to lift the Scottish League in season 1972-73 and won the Drybrough Cup twice in 1972 and 1973 During his decade with Hibs Turnbull also managed George Best and here he tells all about his turbulent time with the late great legend In this engrossing memoir Turnbull candidly explains why he walked away from football in 1980 recounts many entertaining behind the scenes stories and gives his diagnoses of the ills of the modern game

Terrorism and the State William Perdue, 1989-08-07 Terrorism and the State is a volume on the political economy of terrorism Emphasizing the role of ideological systems in the definition of political violence this book is theoretical historical and critical It first presents and refutes the two most commonly expressed definitions of terrorism the absolutist view a simplistic picture of international deviance on the part of fanatics and the liberal relativistic view one man's terrorist is another man's freedom fighter Both views focus on the definition of behaviors rather than on the real relations of domination and subjugation embodied in the social structure Neither view can be used as a vehicle when analyzing institutionalized forces of domination through fear The author suggests that there is presently a double standard of terrorism one for the state and the other for its opponents Terrorism and the State reframes the terrorism debate A historical review supports a revisionist position that places the issue in the context of global relations Attention is given to the role of the media in the selective selling of international terrorism Having established his framework the author proceeds through the investigation of historically grounded cases to systematically analyze state terrorism the coercive power of today s nuclear weapon state global apartheid terrornoia settler terrorism holy terror and finally surrogate terrorism Terrorism and the State develops its framework for the terrorism debate within the first three chapters The Ideology of Terrorism Terrorism and the State and Mediaspeak The Selling of International Terrorism The remainder of this volume concentrates on historically grounded cases The Real Nuclear Terrorism Racial Terrorism Apartheid in South Africa Terrornoia and Zonal Revolution The Case of Libya Settler Terrorism Israel and the P L O Holy Terror Iran and Irangate Surrogate Terrorism The United States and Nicaragua
