The Only Way Home:

The Only Way Home Liz Byron, 2020-02-01 On a warm day in May 2004 Liz Byron set off from Cooktown with her two companions donkeys Grace and Charley on a self imposed challenge to walk 2500 kilometres of the Bicentennial National Trail over 9 months This epic journey was a rite of passage to mark leaving 40 years of marriage and embarking on life as a single woman at the age of 61 She foresaw that self reliance physical stamina and route finding would be challenges but couldn't have known how the outback environment in Queensland was to test her to the limit Years of drought had left much of her route a dusty wasteland without food or water for her animals Years of suffering from childhood abuse and a family tragedy had left her unwilling to ask for help Walking became a meditation an exercise in being in the moment even when that moment was 43 degrees or she hadn't eaten for 7 hours In her moving memoir Liz reveals how she healed herself step by step on the way to her new home in northern NSW by learning to trust her intuition the wisdom of her animals and the kindness of strangers
