Could there be any truth to the school's decades old legend of the Changing Man? Is there any connection to the missing older brother of her classmate Ben? As more questions arise, I have no choice but to team up with Ben and Bijal to investigate. But can the trio act quickly enough to uncover who or what is behind everything before they become the Changing Man's next victim?

Seeds of Fortune Sue Shephard, 2012-11-05

For over a century and across five generations the Veitch family pioneered the introduction of hundreds of new plants into gardens, conservatories and houses and were amongst the foremost European cultivators and hybridisers of their day. The story begins in 1768 when a Scotsman called John Veitch came to England to find his fortune starting out as a gardener for the aristocracy. Realising that horticultural mania had begun to spread throughout the social classes, John's son James opened a nursery in Exeter and began to send some of the first commercial plant collectors into the Americas, Australia, India, Japan, China and the South Seas. By the beginning of the twentieth century the Veitch's had become key figures within the gardening establishment, involved with the Royal Horticultural Society from its beginnings and the great Chelsea Flower Show. Combining an historian's eye for detail with a flair for storytelling, Shephard charts the fortunes of one family and through them tells the fascinating story of the modern English garden.

"The Rest of Us" Stephen Birmingham, 2015-12-01

The New York Times bestselling history of the Jewish immigrants from Russia and Poland who altered the American landscape from New York to Hollywood. The wave of Eastern European Jewish immigrants who swept into New York in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries by way of Ellis Island were not welcomed by the Jews who had arrived decades before. These refugees from czarist Russia and the Polish shtetls who came to America to escape pogroms and persecution were considered barbaric, uneducated and too steeped in the traditions of the old country to be accepted by the more refined and already well established German Jewish community. But the new arrivals were tough, passionate and determined and in no time they were moving up from the ghetto tenements of New York's Lower East Side to make their marks and their fortunes across the country in a variety of fields from media and popular music to fashion, motion pictures and even organized crime. Among the unforgettable personages, author Stephen Birmingham profiles are radio pioneer David Sarnoff, makeup mogul Helena Rubinstein, Hollywood tycoons Samuel Goldwyn and Harry Cohn, Broadway composer Irving Berlin and mobster Meyer Lansky. From the author of Our Crowd comes this treasure trove of fascinating tales and unforgettable rags to riches success stories that celebrates the indomitable spirit of a unique community.
