Emerging Conflicts of Principle Thomas Kane, 2013-03-28 Debates over the ethics of war economic redistribution resource consumption and the rights and responsibilities associated with membership of a political community are just some of the major conflicts of principle identified by Thomas Kane which characterize world politics today According to the author debates such as these are being drawn towards increasingly polarized positions represented by strongly universalist and particularist moral and political ideologies such as cosmopolitanism and republicanism Kane analyzes each of these areas identifying that the potential for ideologically driven conflict will constitute the greatest challenge facing scholars and policy makers in the twenty first century

Authority and Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume II) Florence Labaune-Demeule, 2016-01-14 Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the concepts of authority and displacement Indeed political and social sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement it can also be synonymous with psychological social and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices Displacement also entails displacement as well as dislocation or chaos This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term authority auctoritas has to be highlighted thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view Volume Two Exploring American Shores includes essays on the place of famous fugitives in American culture notably through the story of Bonnie and Clyde as well as on the links between displacement authority and sculpture on the one hand Placing and Replacing the Capitol Sculptures and on the links between displacement and photography on the other through a study of Joel Sternfeld's Walking the High Line In addition to investigations of Louise Erdrich's novel Books and Islands in Ojibwe Country Canadian landscapes in transit will be studied to highlight the displacement of the Western landscape tradition in English Canada The volume concludes with a study of some literary works by several writers of Guyanese origin first with an essay comparing Martin Carter's and L. On Gontran Damas's literary productions and then with an essay devoted to Fred D. Aguiar's novel The Longest Memory 1994

Authority and

Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume I) Florence Labaune-Demeule, 2016-01-14 Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the concepts of authority and displacement. Indeed, political and social sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times. If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement, it can also be synonymous with psychological, social, and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices. Displacement also entails displacement of location as well as dislocation or chaos. This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term auctoritas has to be highlighted, thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art. This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English-speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature. Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view. Volume One: Exploring Europe from Europe includes essays on Shakespeare's Measure for Measure, John Ross's Second Exploration, Thomas Hardy's Jude the Obscure, in addition to investigations of Rose Tremain's novels Disguise by Hugo Hamilton and the cinematic adaptation of Conrad's Almayer's Folly by Chantal Akerman. The volume concludes with a study of two novels by the Anglo-Sudanese writer Jamal Mahjoub. Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar, 2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political, cultural, and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English. The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world: Africa, the Middle East, South Asia, South-east Asia, Australia, and New Zealand, the Pacific, the Caribbean, and Canada. There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial, notably Britain, East Asia, Ireland, Latin America, and the United States. The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature, covers major events, ideas, movements, and figures in postcolonial histories, long regional survey essays on historiography and women's histories. Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories. Extensive cross-references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease. Soft Weapons Gillian Whitlock, 2010-02-15 Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran, Marjane Satrapi's comics and Baghdad Blogger, Salam Pax's Internet diary are just a few examples of the new face of autobiography in an age of migration, globalization, and terror. But while autobiography and other genres of life writing can help us attend to people whose experiences are frequently unseen.

and unheard life narratives can also be easily co-opted into propaganda. In Soft Weapons Gillian Whitlock explores the dynamism and ubiquity of contemporary life writing about the Middle East and shows how these works have been packaged, promoted and enlisted in Western controversies. Considering recent autoethnographies of Afghan women, refugee testimony from Middle Eastern war zones, Jean Sasson's bestsellers about the lives of Arab women, Norma Khouri's fraudulent memoir Honor Lost, personal accounts by journalists reporting the war in Iraq, Satrapi's Persepolis, Nafisi's book and Pax's blog, Whitlock explores the contradictions and ambiguities in the rapid commodification of life memoirs. Drawing from the fields of literary and cultural studies, Soft Weapons will be essential reading for scholars of life writing and those interested in the exchange of literary culture between Islam and the West. Globalizing Dissent Ranjan Ghosh, Antonia Navarro-Tejero, 2009-01-13 Arundhati Roy is not only an accomplished novelist but equally gifted in unraveling the politics of globalization, the power and ideology of corporate culture, fundamentalism, terrorism and other issues gripping today's world. This volume featuring prominent scholars from throughout the world examines Roy beyond the aesthetic parameters of her fiction, focusing also on her creative activism and struggles in global politics. The chapters travel to and fro between her non-fictional works, engaging activism on the streets and global forums, and its underlying roots in her novel. Roy is examined as a novelist, non-fiction writer, journalist, activist, feminist, screenwriter, ideologist and architect. This volume presents Roy's interlocking network of the ideas, attitudes and ideologies that emerge from the contemporary social and the political world.

Race Characters Swati Rana, 2020-10-06 A vexed figure inhabits U.S. literature and culture: the visibly racialized immigrant who disavows minority identity and embraces the American dream. Such figures are potent and controversial for they promise to expiate racial violence and perpetuate an exceptionalist ideal of America. Swati Rana grapples with these figures, building on studies of literary character and racial form. Rana offers a new way to view characterization through racialization that creates a fuller social reading of race. Situated in a nascent period of ethnic identification from 1900 to 1960, this book focuses on immigrant writers who do not fit neatly into a resistance-based model of ethnic literature. Writings by Paule Marshall, Ameen Rihani, Dalip Singh Saund, Jos Garcia Villa, and Jos Antonio Villarreal symbolize different aspects of the American dream, from individualism to imperialism, assimilation to upward mobility. The dynamics of characterization are also those of contestation. Rana argues, analyzing the interrelation of persona and personhood. Race Characters presents an original method of comparison, revealing how the protagonist of the American dream is socially constrained and structurally driven. The Postcolonial Country in Contemporary Literature L. Loh, 2013-11-25 By situating a range of contemporary literary texts against the backdrop of the legacies of a vast rural network of empire, this book collectively critiques not only the rural heritage industry of the 1980s in Britain but also the effect of neocolonial globalisation on postcolonial rural spaces. LITERATURE AS A SITE OF ACTIVISM: A SELECT STUDY OF WOMEN WRITING IN INDIA G. Sathya, 2018-03-05 In the study Literature as a Site of Activism: A Select Study of Women Writing in India an attempt is made to bring the well known contemporary women writers who are very much part of the mainstream society. These women writers use their fictional as well as their non-fictional writings to exhibit their activist concern. They use their writings to criticize certain social happenings. Though the writers hail from different parts of our country, the issues raised by them in their writings unify them. Their concern over various issues is discussed in a particular sense here. Myths and Realities John Whedbee, 2005. Myths and Realities creates a comprehensive picture of human life and culture while at the same time placing it within the larger cosmic context. In recent decades, all areas of human knowledge have expanded to an unprecedented degree, so the overall context of human existence is at last beginning to emerge. In order to present such a wide-ranging portrait, Myths and Realities looks at history and human nature from several different viewpoints, giving special attention to four major topics: culture, science, religion, and war. Science is a major contributor because it is the most reliable means of acquiring knowledge. Religion is part of the wider subject of beliefs in general, and these have been given particular consideration because any kind of ideology or belief tends to distort the worldview. War has been mankind's constant companion, but without its underlying mythology, it would lose all glory and romance. It would just be senseless savagery. Although man has many distinctive qualities, one of his most remarkable characteristics is his capacity to believe in all kinds of nonsensical notions. In fact, the human animal will believe practically anything so long as it makes absolutely no sense at all.

Exploring Indian Modernities Leila Choukroune, Parul Bhandari, 2018-06-04. This book analyses how multiple and hybrid modernities have been shaped in colonial and postcolonial India from the lens of sociology and anthropology, literature, media, and cultural studies, law, and political economy. It discusses the ideas that shaped these modernities as well as the lived experience and practice of these modernities. The two broad foci in this book are: a) The dynamism of modern institutions in India, delineating the specific ways in which ideas of modernity have come to define these institutions and how institutional innovations have shaped modernities; and b) perspectives on everyday practices of modernities and the cultural constituents of being modern. This book provides an enriching read by bringing together original papers from diverse disciplines and from renowned as well as upcoming scholars.
