The Original Casting Of Moliere's Plays:

The Catalogue of the American Play Co., with Original Casts American Play Company, 1911 The Catalogue of the American Play Company, with Original Casts American Play Company, 1911 Moliere's Actors Roger Williams Herzel, 1974

Moliere Michael Hawcroft, 2007-09-27 Moliere wrote, directed and starred in comedies for public and court audiences in seventeenth century France. He is perennially successful but perennially subject to critical controversy. Do his plays aim to do more than make audiences laugh? This book focuses on a group of characters in the plays the interpretation of whose role lies at the heart of any answer to this question. For over a century critics have baptised them raisonneurs. They are characters who engage with some of Moliere's most foolish protagonists but they have been variously interpreted as exponents of wisdom or as ridiculous bores. This book argues that new light can be shed on the words and actions of these characters and so on the tenor of the plays as a whole by detailed contextual analysis of the dramaturgical and comic structures in which they operate. They have never before been treated so exhaustively. They emerge neither as the mouthpieces of common sense nor as pompous fools but as thoughtful, witty and resourceful friends of the foolish protagonists whom Moliere himself played. The book takes into account what is known of the performance styles of Moliere's troupe of actors as well as engaging closely with the text of the plays and the critical debate to date. Some of Moliere's most teasingly problematic plays are held up to fresh scrutiny including L'Ecole des femmes, Le Tartuffe, Le Misanthrope and Le Malade imaginaire. The book is written with scholars, students and interested theatre goers in mind. This is the first book-length treatment of the topic. Motion

Picture Herald, 1927 The Poetical Works of John Dryden, Containing the Original Poems, Tales, and Translations John Dryden, 1856 Bulgakov's Last Decade J. A. E. Curtis, 1987-04-24 Published in 1987 this book was the first full-length interpretative study in English of the later writings of the outstanding Soviet novelist and playwright Mikhail Bulgakov. 1891-1940. The focus is the 1930s, the period when Bulgakov was writing The Master and Margarita, an extraordinary novel that has had a profound impact in the Soviet Union and which is now generally regarded as his masterpiece. Using material from Soviet archives and libraries, Dr Curtis suggests that Bulgakov's fundamental preoccupation in this novel with the destiny of literature and of the writer is reflected in other major works of the same period, in particular his writings on Pushkin and Moliere. Bulgakov emerges as a belated romantic figure, unique on the early Soviet literary scene. Seven Come Eleven Charles Deemer, 1999-12 In this collection of his stories and plays Charles Deemer writes of characters typically struggling with changing values in an uncertain world. Todd in The Half Life Conspiracy, a playwright who comes to the premiere of his one-act play only to discover that it is being directed by his ex-wife who left him for another woman, the very subject of his bitter one-act play. Thomas in Famililly who braces to tell his traditional dying father that he will be raising his son not with his wife but with his male soul mate. Lester in The Man Who Shot Elvis who many years after the fact is still dealing with a sense of loss from when black rhythm n blues turned into white rock n roll. Included is this anthology Famililly which won the 1997

Crossing Borders international new play competition The Idaho Jacket which was selected as a Roll of Honor story in Best American Short Stories 1974 and Christmas at the Juniper Tavern an ACE award winner for its presentation on public television and called an Oregon classic by Northwest Magazine Praise for the writing of Charles Deemer One of Oregon's most precious natural resources Jonathan Nicholas The Oregonian Oregon's most important playwright Paul Pinterich Northwest Deemer asks questions about the nature of people's lives their relationships and their values when something out there forces change Kathleen L Reyes Stepping Out Northwest
