American Book Publishing Record ,2005 EU Environmental Law and Policy David Langlet,Said Mahmoudi,2016-09-15 An accessible and comprehensive resource EU Environmental Law and Policy explains the structure and logic of EU environmental law and enables readers to quickly gain a thorough understanding of the different areas of EU secondary law pertaining to the protection of the environment This volume explores the institutional constitutional and historical premises for the adoption and application of substantive EU environmental law and further expounds upon the dynamics between EU Member States and the EU The book additionally provides an introduction to the specific subject areas of EU environmental law through thematic chapters that analyse important topics such as climate and energy water and biological diversity Each area is explained in detail including a discussion of the specific features that characterize each area and an overview of the main legal acts and case law relevant to the particular area Integrative Social Work Practice with Refugees, Asylum Seekers, and Other Forcibly Displaced Persons Nancy J. Murakami,Mashura Akilova,2022-11-25 This textbook provides theoretical and clinical knowledge needed by social workers and other practitioners involved in humanitarian emergency response Social workers are well positioned to serve coordinating and leadership roles in this interdisciplinary field due to their holistic training This book weaves together micro mezzo and macro levels of practice into integrated social work practice Its historical account of humanitarian emergencies coverage of social work frameworks and principles and review of existing best practices at the clinical community and policy levels ground the reader in a field of social work that requires consideration of historical frameworks alongside innovative responses to the complexity of humanitarian emergencies The contributors incorporate best practices as well as address gaps in awareness knowledge and skills that they have observed and studied worldwide Some of the topics explored include Social Work with Displaced Children Women LGBTQI Asylum Seekers Return and Reintegration of Displaced Populations and Reconstruction in Post conflict Societies Culture Trauma and Loss Integrative Social Work Practice with Refugees and Asylum Seekers Clinical Social Work Practice with Forcibly Displaced Persons Grounded in Human Rights and Social Justice Principles Integrative Social Work Practice with Refugees Asylum Seekers and Other Forcibly Displaced Persons is adoptable as a primary text for MSW and doctoral elective courses on global social work or international social work practice with persecuted and forcibly displaced people This textbook is targeted to clinical social work or policy courses as well and can be supplemental reading for required courses for migration and forced displacement majors It is also useful for social workers or interdisciplinary practitioners working around the globe with displaced populations The pursuit of sustainable agriculture in EU free trade agreements Luchino Ferraris,2023-09-14 This book explores the extent to which EU Free Trade Agreements FTAs pursue sustainable agriculture in third country parties It contends that this should be part of a duty for the EU enshrined in the Treaties to promote its fundamental values in its external action It suggests that the extent to which this occurs in practice may be reviewed judicially by the Court of Justice of the European Union Against this background selected agreements concluded by the EU with developed and developing countries Canada South Korea Ukraine Chile SADC countries and Vietnam are taken as case studies The author concludes that in spite of the remarkable progress made hitherto EU trade policy is still far from being in line with the increasingly strong commitment of the EU to take the lead in the international arena for environmental and climate matters This work adopts primarily a legal methodology but it broaches the subject in interdisciplinary terms It is addressed not only to EU policy makers but also to scholars of different fields and to the wider public interested in topics that have become of common concern for the future of our planet With a foreword by Daniel Calleja Crespo Director General of the European Commission DG Environment Optimizing Regional Development Through Transformative Urbanization Benna, Umar G.,2018-08-10 Assisted by globalization and the rapid application of advanced technologies the transformative power of urbanization is being felt around the world The scale and the speed of existing and projected urbanization poses several challenges to researchers in multiple disciplines such as computer science engineering and the social sciences Optimizing Regional Development Through Transformative Urbanization provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of applications within urban growth interventions It also explores the strategies for new urban development tools such as the rise of new platforms for digital activities concepts of sharing economy collaborative economy crowdsourcing and crowdfunding Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as cryptocurrencies public private partnership and urban governance this book is a vital reference for city development planners decision makers policymakers academicians researchers and professionals seeking current research on the delivery of transformative urbanization changes Multilingual Digital Storytelling Jim Anderson,Vicky Macleroy,2016-03-02 Classrooms are increasingly multicultural in their social composition and students are increasingly connected through digital media to local and global networks However pedagogy has failed to take full advantage of the opportunities these resources represent Multilingual Digital Storytelling draws attention to the interfaces between learner engagement creativity and critical digital literacy as well as addressing the multilingual within the multiliteracies framework Addressing a significant gap in the field of multiliteracies by focusing on multilingualism this book explores new digital spaces for language learning and methods of extending understandings of youth literacy in an increasingly interconnected world Drawing on innovative and multi site research projects based in mainstream and community schools in London and overseas this book discusses how young people become engaged creatively and critically with literacy by demonstrating how digital storytelling can be used as a tool for language development The book begins by considering linguistic cultural cognitive and social dimensions of language learning from a theoretical perspective whilst the second part focuses on practical case studies that reflect and illustrate these theoretical principles Offering a powerful new perspective on multiliteracies pedagogy Multilingual Digital Storytelling will appeal to researchers and academics in the fields of education applied linguistics sociology and youth and community studies It will also be an invaluable resource for teachers teacher educators curriculum planners and policymakers

The European Union and Human Rights Jan Wouters,Michal Ovádek,2021-03-25 The European Union and Human Rights Analysis Cases and Materials maps and critiques the EU s commitment to human rights in both internal and external affairs The book covers the evolution as well as the current state of the EU s engagement with human rights focusing on the internal side on the role of the EU law in the multi faceted system of human rights protection and on the external side on the EU s efforts to bind its foreign policy to promoting human rights This book combines analysis of key developments with a wide range of sources including extracts from legislation case law policy documents and research of other scholars The inclusion of both primary and secondary materials is intended to guide readers to acquire a deep understanding of EU human rights law and policy This title devotes significant attention to explicating the fundamental concepts and systemic features of the EU s human rights protection and promotion In addition chapters devoted to individual topics provide more depth on a range of policy areas in both the internal and external dimension of EU affairs Topics covered by these individual chapters include non discrimination and competition law migration trade policy and development cooperation

Anti-corruption Education and Peacebuilding Jean de Dieu Basabose,2019-03-06 This study explores corruption in Rwanda and highlights the necessity of developing anti corruption education as a way of combating corruption It argues that an effective campaign against corruption should consider promoting anti corruption education with the aim of enabling present and future generations to maintain and live out the Ubumuntu meaning trust respect ethical values Considering the link between anti corruption and peacebuilding efforts as explained in this study it is underlined that continuous efforts to raise such generations could undoubtedly move Rwandan society toward a sustainable peace Peacebuilders anti corruption agents and public policymakers are the primary beneficiaries of the study

Tax and the Digital Economy Werner Haslechner,Georg Kofler,Katerina Pantazatou,Alexander Rust,2019-05-01 The increasingly digitalized global economy is undermining the usefulness of many traditional tax concepts In addition to issues of double taxation and double non taxation important questions arise concerning the allocation of taxing rights in respect of income from cross border digital transactions This is the first book to analyse what changes are possible necessary and feasible in order to forestall the unravelling of the existing international tax framework Focusing in turn on the legal framework specific proposals for adapting tax concepts for the digital economy types of transactions and administrative issues such as those around data protection and digital currencies the expert contributors discuss such challenges to taxation as the following the pervasiveness of intangible assets new value creation models the ascendance of the sharing economy and digital services virtual currencies the importance of user participation for digital platforms cloud computing the impact of Big Data on tax enforcement virtual business presence and the influence of robotization Throughout the authors describe and analyse proposals made by the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD the European Union EU and individual countries and their likely impact going forward They also attend to the limits imposed on reform possibilities by public international law EU law and constitutional law It is generally acknowledged that there is a need to monitor how the digital transformation may be impacting value creation This book is a key milestone toward developing a durable long term solution to the tax challenges posed by the digitalization of the economy With its thorough scrutiny of proposals for digital services tax and virtual permanent establishments insightful analysis of digital services and detailed description of the impact of big data on tax administration and taxpayer protection it will quickly prove indispensable for tax practitioners and the international tax community more generally
