The Drawings Of Henry Moore:

The Drawings of Henry Moore Alan G. Wilkinson, Henry Moore, 1984 Henry Moore Ann Garrould, Henry Moore, 1988

DUST JACKET Sculptures and Drawings by Henry Moore Henry Moore, Smithsonian Institution, 1968 Henry Moore Henry Moore, 1984 Henry Moore David Mitchinson, Julian Stallabrass, 1992
Reclining figure and the mother and child David Mitchinson, Curator of the Henry Moore Foundation describes Moore's early life, the influences upon him and the emergence of his distinctive style. The story is continued by Julian Stallabrass who explains Moore's increasing popularity after the Second World War. Despite public controversy over some of the more disquieting pieces, Moore's work had become acceptable to a wide audience by the mid 1950s and by the end of The Drawings of Henry Moore, 1977 Henry Moore: 1916-29 Henry Moore, 1996
This seventh and final volume in the complete catalog of Henry Moore's drawings is an essential key to the material contained in the other six volumes. It provides a consolidated version of all the reference apparatus contained in each of the other volumes: index, concordance and list of exhibitions, enabling the user to track down any particular drawing from any period or volume by means of its title, HMF or AG number. In addition, this volume includes a list of Addenda and Corrigenda relating to information that has come to light since this series was launched in 1994. Some 150 items are included in this section. The opportunity has also been seized to catalog about 600 previously unpublished drawings produced by Moore in the last two years of his life, 1984-86, and held in the archives of the Henry Moore Foundation. About fifty of these are illustrated and give a flavor of the fine quality of the artist's output even as he approached the end of his life. Henry Moore: Complete Drawings, 1950-1976 Henry Moore, 1994-04
This volume in the complete catalogue of Henry Moore's drawings covers the period 1950 to 1976. Its publication marks the completion of the chronological catalogue of Moore's drawings. Sculpture he nevertheless found time to experiment with different media: drawing with felt, tipped pens and brush and ink on tissue paper, laid down on normal weight drawing paper, for example. He also painted on blotting paper using random offset patches of watercolour as a starting point for his imagination, which never faltered despite the increasing physical frailty which beset him during the 1970s as his 80th birthday approached. Accompanying illustrations. Its compilation has been a research challenge in the course of the 26 years covered by this volume. Moore used many notebooks, some large, some very small, some begun in one year and then laid aside, forgotten or indeed mislaid until the artist took them up again several years later. When exhibitions were planned or dealers requested drawings, Moore would tear pages out of the notebooks and these were often only minimally catalogued before being sold on to galleries or collectors around the world. The considerable research work which has gone into establishing the chronology and media of the drawings in this volume should therefore be welcomed by Moore scholars worldwide. The Drawings of Henry Moore
