Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art      Jan Miense Molenaer Dennis P. Weller, Cynthia von Bogendorf Rupprath, Mariët Westermann, 2002 The first comprehensive examination of the accomplishments of      The Dutch Painters Christopher Wright, 1978      The Archaeology of Martin's Hundred Ivor Noël Hume, Audrey Noel Hume, Audrey Noël Hume, 2016-07-18 The Archaeology of Martin's Hundred explores the history and artifacts of a 20 000 acre tract of land in Tidewater Virginia one of the most extensive English enterprises in the New World Settled in 1618 all signs of its early occupation soon disappeared leaving no trace above ground More than three centuries later archaeological explorations uncovered tantalizing evidence of the people who had lived worked and died there in the seventeenth century Part I Interpretive Studies addresses four critical questions each with complex and sometimes unsatisfactory answers Who was Martin What was a hundred When did it begin and end Where was it located We then see how scientific detective work resulted in a reconstruction of what daily life must have been like in the strange and dangerous new land of colonial Virginia The authors use first person accounts documents of all sorts and the treasure trove of artifacts carefully unearthed from the soil of Martin's Hundred Part II Artifact Catalog illustrates and describes the principal artifacts in 110 figures The objects divided by category and by site range from ceramics which were the most readily and reliably datable to glass of which there was little to metalwork in all its varied aspects from arms and armor to nail splitters wedges and finally to tobacco pipes The Archaeology of Martin's Hundred is a fascinating account of the ways archaeological fieldwork laboratory examination and analysis based on lifelong study of documentary and artifact research came together to increase our knowledge of early colonial history Copublished with the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation      Dutch Classicism in Seventeenth-century Painting Albert Blankert (kunsthistoricus.), Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen (Rotterdam, Netherlands), 1999 With this illustrated catalogue Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen and the Stedelijk Kunsthistitut present the other face of the Golden Age the painters of Dutch classicism Inspired by the art of classical Antiquity and that of the Italian High Renaissance they developed an austere and refined style Their paintings depicting biblical and mythological scenes presented the court the regents and the intelligentsia in the seventeenth century with an alternative to so called Dutch Realism In this publication Dutch classicism is viewed from all sides      Dutch and Flemish Flower Pieces (2 vols in case) Sam Segal, Klara Alen, 2020-09-25 This richly illustrated book provides an overview of all known Dutch and Flemish artists up to the nineteenth century who painted or drew flower pieces or else made prints of them Unlike many mainstream art historical studies the book takes a truly comprehensive approach including cases where only a single example is known or even if nothing of the artist's other work appears to have survived Containing highly instructive lists identifying the names of flowers as well as insects and other animals the book also discusses the earliest depictions of flower still life and the distinctive characteristics behind the development of floral arrangements in different periods including the variation of the flowers the variety of techniques used by artists as well as an exploration of the symbolism behind the numerous plant and animal species this form of art portrays Composed in Dutch the text was translated into English by Judith Deitch and edited by Philip Kelleway Publication of this book was made possible thanks to generous support of Dr med Bettina Leysen Rose Marie and Eijk van Otterloo and the Center for Netherlandish Art at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston With additional support of the M A O C Gravin van Bylandt Stichting See inside the book

Journey through Landscape in Seventeenth-Century Holland: The Haarlem Print Series and Dutch Identity , The sets of landscape etchings produced in the second decade of the seventeenth century by Claes Jansz Visscher Esaias van den Velde Willem Buytewech and Jan van de Velde drew on and contributed to a print culture that played a key role in defining Dutch landscape Examination of these printed landscape series as part of a wide ranging print culture underscores the consistent interrelationship of landscape history and politics To varying degrees the contemporaneous descriptive geographies histories allegorical tableaux didactic prints and poetic anthologies considered in this study provide parallels for the prints serial structure journey theme and commemorative motifs Moreover as part of a wider enterprise of Dutch self definition they provide cultural guidelines for the interpretation of landscape in prints and paintings Levesque s study of the Dutch seventeenth century experience of place is two tiered She addresses the journey through landscape as an interpretive framework the spatial structure of knowledge the benefits of travel from the point of view of humanists and the growth of a Dutch national self consciousness expressed through landscape She also provides a close reading of the structure and motifs in the print series of Claes Jansz Visscher Esaias van den Velde Willem Buytewech and Jan van de Velde

The Dutch Republic in the Seventeenth Century J. Leslie Price, 1998-10-30 The Dutch Republic emerged from the epic revolt of the Netherlands against Spanish rule in the late sixteenth century and almost immediately became a major political force in Europe Leslie Price an acknowledged expert in the field shows how this extraordinary new state a republic in a Europe of monarchies was able to achieve such successes despite the burdens of the Eighty Years War with Spain which only came to a definitive end in 1648

Perspectives on Garden Histories Michel Conan, 1999 Garden history is a discipline of contested purposes Perspectives on Garden Histories contributes to a self critical examination of this emergent field of study at the same time offering an overview of its main achievements in several domains such as Italian and Mughal gardens and of the new kinds of investigation to which they have led In its early years garden history centered on architectural studies of garden design but in the 1960s the emphasis shifted from garden design to garden meaning The new paradigm considered gardens as complex works of art and demanded an extensive documentation of the historical context as well as of the figurative and discursive sources This approach in its turn was challenged by neo Marxist scholars who proceeded to view landscape appreciation as an ideological superstructure an outgrowth of agricultural production processes Garden designs and their histories can also be viewed as expressions of ideological conflicts in society Neither gardens nor their history can thus be studied independently of the social cultural and political movements that give prominence to the contested ideologies Gardens can be used to foster some ideologies or reflect a reaction against a social change Comparative research offers another fascinating approach exploring the relations between European landscape concepts and other cultural contexts and discussing issues of cultural dominance and interpretation The emergence of various perspectives has led to the incorporation of further questions into the domain of garden studies which has been moving in new directions and using new methods in search of an adapted theoretical framework This volume offers a striking view of changes taking place in the discipline
