The Heart Triumphant 53:

Out of the Depths. The Story of a Woman's Life. A Novel. By Henry Gladwyn Jebb ,1873      The Beast in the Boudoir
Kathleen Kete,2023-11-15 Kathleen Kete's wise and witty examination of petkeeping in nineteenth century Paris provides a unique window through which to view the lives of ordinary French people. She demonstrates how that cliché of modern life, the family dog, reveals the tensions that modernity created for the Parisian bourgeoisie. Kete's study draws on a range of literary and archival sources, from dog care books to veterinarians' records to Dumas's musings on his cat. The fad for aquariums, attitudes toward vivisection, the dread of rabies, the development of dog breeding, all are shown to reflect the ways middle class people thought about their lives. Petkeeping, says Kete, was a way to imagine a better, more manageable version of the world; it relieved the pressures of contemporary life and improvised solutions to the intractable mesh that was post-Enlightenment France. The faithful, affectionate family dog became a counterpoint to the isolation of individualism and lack of community in urban life. By century's end, however, animals no longer represented the human condition with such potency, and even the irascible, autonomous cat had been rehabilitated into a creature of fidelity and affection. Full of fascinating details, this innovative book will contribute to the way we understand culture and the creation of class. Making a compelling case based on new evidence and fresh exposition, James Ware affirms the church's historic reading of 1 Corinthians 15. He shows that the apostolic formula in 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 proclaims in continuity with the Gospels the resurrection of Jesus's crucified body from the tomb and that the hope of the resurrection described in 1 Corinthians 15:12-58 involves the miraculous revivification of our present bodies of flesh and bones and their transformation to imperishability. Ware's monumental study is unmatched for its
