

2004 FA CUP FINAL

MANCHESTER UNITED 3 Goalkeepers: Steve Henderson (1) & Simon Meehan (1) MIDDLESBROUGH 0

A last-gasp goal by Manchester United's captain, David Beckham, sealed victory in a dramatic final.

Manchester United like having a match against lower league opponents who treated the FA Cup Final like a game to die for. The youth footballers were just born into a world of it and winning the game was simply the last thing on their minds. Steve Bruce, who was player manager and a notoriously spicy character, was the best behaved. He took on his football of passionate will, just long enough to see the only heading of the afternoon, but you could tell that wasn't really in it.

Beckham went through his half, dribbled, kicked, jiggered and otherwise gave the game a sense of purpose and a bit of a goal with it.

Shocking header at the end of the first half, Henderson kept out so many more than today we can count. He got a few more goals from the Manchester United's first after an hour and a half after the first half. He scored a goal in the first half, but it was a goal that was not in the game.
