The Oneroom School In Canada:

The One-room School in Canada Jean Cochrane, 1981 10 Great Curricula Thomas S. Poetter, 2012-01-01 With Susan L M Bartow Lara A Chatman Daniel Ciamarra Christopher L Cox Dawn Mann Kevin J Smith Kevin M Talbert Mary A Webb and Amy Fisher Young 10 Great Curricula is a collection of stories written by educators who have come to understand curricula differently as a result of their engagement with a graduate course and its instructor The book represents the best of what can be found in teaching and learning in general and in the quest for meaningful ways to understand curricula in particular The co authors of this volume on 10 Great Curricula framed their inquiries into progressive democratic curricula at least initially through Marsh and Willis 2007 notions of planned enacted and lived curricula These frames helped the writers think about how to engage a curriculum as it is developed delivered and lived by its participants and for the inquirers to actually become participant inquirers in the curriculum at hand The chapters depict the power the possibility and the transformational potential of great progressive curricula today by locating them in schools and in the community by making them come alive to the reader and by suggesting means through which the reader can adopt a more progressive democratic stance to curriculum despite the seemingly overwhelming nature of the conservative traditionalist instrumentalist movements in curriculum teaching and assessment today The book is intended for students of education teaching and curriculum undergraduates graduates and practicing educational professionals especially those looking for examples in the world in which progressive democratic ideals are nurtured and practiced L.M. Montgomery and Canadian Culture Elizabeth R. Epperly, Irene Gammel, University of Toronto Press, 1999-01-01 Contributors from a wide range of disciplines explore L M Montgomery s writing and its relation to Canadian nationalism including regionalism canon formation and Canadian American cultural relations Proceedings of the ... New York (State) Family Court, 1928 Contains statistics for the City of New York The Praeger Handbook of Faith-Based Schools in the United States, K-12 Thomas C. Hunt, James C. Carper, 2012-08-06 Exploring a subject that is as important as it is divisive this two volume work offers the first current definitive work on the intricacies and issues relative to America s faith based schools The Praeger Handbook of Faith Based Schools in the United States K 12 is an indispensable study at a time when American education is increasingly considered through the lenses of race ethnicity gender and social class With contributions from an impressive array of experts the two volume work provides a historical overview of faith based schooling in the United States as well as a comprehensive treatment of each current faith based school tradition in the nation The first volume examines three types of faith based schools Protestant schools Jewish schools and Evangelical Protestant homeschooling The second volume focuses on Catholic Muslim and Orthodox schools and addresses critical issues common to faith based schools among them state and federal regulation and school choice as well as ethnic cultural confessional and practical factors Perhaps most importantly for those concerned with the questions and controversies that abound in U S education the handbook grapples with outcomes of faith based schooling and with the choices parents face as they consider educational options for their children Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood s shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad s Best Memories and Recollections Canada's Residential Schools: The History, Part 2, 1939 to 2000 Commission de vérité et réconciliation du Canada, 2016-01-01 Between 1867 and 2000 the Canadian government sent over 150 000 Aboriginal children to residential schools across the country Government officials and missionaries agreed that in order to civilize and Christianize Aboriginal children it was necessary to separate them from their parents and their home communities For children life in these schools was lonely and alien Discipline was harsh and daily life was highly regimented Aboriginal languages and cultures were denigrated and suppressed Education and technical training too often gave way to the drudgery of doing the chores necessary to make the schools self sustaining Child neglect was institutionalized and the lack of supervision created situations where students were prey to sexual and physical abusers Legal action by the schools former students led to the creation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada in 2008 The product of over six years of research the Commission s final report outlines the history and legacy of the schools and charts a pathway towards reconciliation Canada s Residential Schools The History Part 2 1939 to 2000 carries the story of the residential school system from the end of the Great Depression to the closing of the last remaining schools in the late 1990s It demonstrates that the underfunding and unsafe living conditions that characterized the early history of the schools continued into an era of unprecedented growth and prosperity for most Canadians A miserly funding formula meant that into the late 1950s school meals fell short of the Canada Food Rules Overcrowding poor sanitation and a failure to adhere to fire safety rules were common problems throughout this period While government officials had come to view the schools as costly and inefficient the churches were reluctant to countenance their closure It was not until the late 1960s that the federal government finally wrested control of the system away from the churches Government plans to turn First Nations education over to the provinces met with opposition from Aboriginal organizations that were seeking Indian Control of Indian Education Following parent led occupation of a school in Alberta many of the remaining schools came under Aboriginal administration The closing of the schools coincided with a growing number of convictions of former staff members on charges of sexually abusing students These trials revealed the degree to which sexual abuse at the schools had been covered up in the past Former students who came to refer to themselves as Survivors established regional and national organizations and provided much of the leadership for the campaign that led to the federal government issuing in 2008 an apology to the former students and their families

Children, Teachers and Schools in the History of British Columbia Jean Barman, Mona Gleason, 2003 This new edition explores the myriad ways that education broadly defined molds each of us in profound and enduring ways Laid against the supporting scaffolding of modern critical theory the chapters offer cutting edge perspectives of going to school in British Columbia How has education been tailored by race class gender How do representations of schools and schooling change over time and whose interests are served What echoes of current tensions can we hear in the past The book offers a glimpse of the deep contradictions inherent in an experience that we all share

Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work Francis J. Turner, 2009-07-23 All of us as Canadians are touched throughout our lives by some aspect of social welfare either as recipients donors or taxpayers But despite the importance of the social network in our country there has been no single source of information about this critical component of our society Even professionals in the field of social work or social services have not had a comprehensive volume addressing the myriad features of this critical societal structure The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work fills this need Over five hundred topics important to Canadian social work are covered written by a highly diverse group of social workers covering all aspects of the field and all areas of the country Practitioners policy makers academics social advocates researchers students and administrators present a rich overview of the complexity and diversity of social work and social welfare as it exists in Canada The principal finding from this project underscores the long held perception that there is a Canadian model of social work that is unique and stands as a useful model to other countries The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work will be an important source of information both to Canadians and to interested groups around the world The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work is available in e book version by subscription or from university and college libraries through the following vendors
