The Orientalists Lynne Thornton,1994 Presents the numerous painters who succumbed to the charms of the Orient

The Orientalists Lynne Thornton,1983 The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman,2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production Orientalism's Interlocutors Jill Beaulieu,Mary Roberts,2002-12-06 A collection of essays that develop ways of doing postcolonial studies in art history Orientalist Aesthetics Roger Benjamin,2003-02-03 Lavishly illustrated with exotic images ranging from Renoir s forgotten Algerian oeuvre to the abstract vision of Matisse s Morocco and beyond this book is the first history of Orientalist art during the period of high modernism Roger Benjamin drawing on a decade of research in untapped archives introduces many unfamiliar paintings posters miniatures and panoramas and discovers an art movement closely bound to French colonial expansion Orientalist Aesthetics approaches the visual culture of exoticism by ranging across the decorative arts colonial museums traveling scholarships and art criticism in the Salons of Paris and Algiers Benjamin s rediscovery of the important Society of French Orientalist Painters provides a critical context for understanding a lush body of work including that of indigenous Algerian artists never before discussed in English The painter critic Eug ne Fromentin tackled the unfamiliar atmospheric conditions of the desert Etienne Dinet sought a more truthful mode of ethnographic painting by converting to Islam and Mohammed Racim melded the Persian miniature with Western perspective Benjamin considers armchair Orientalists concocting dreams from studio bric brac naturalists who spent years living in the oases of the Sahara and Fauve and Cubist travelers who transposed the discoveries of the Parisian Salons to create decors of indigenous figures and tropical plants The network that linked these artists with writers and museum curators was influenced by a complex web of tourism rapid travel across the Mediterranean and the march of modernity into a colonized culture Orientalist Aesthetics shows how colonial policy affected aesthetics how Europeans visualized cultural difference and how indigenous artists in turn manipulated Western visual languages Orientalism John MacKenzie,1995-07-15 The Orientalism debate inspired by the work of Edward Said has been a major source of cross disciplinary controversy in recent years John MacKenzie offers a comprehensive re evaluation of this vast literature of Orientalism and brings to the subject highly original historical perspectives This study provides the first major discussion of Orientalism by a historian of imperialism Setting the analysis within the context of conflicting scholarly interpretations John MacKenzie then carries the discussion into wholly new areas testing the notion that the western arts received genuine inspiration from the East by examining the visual arts architecture design music and theatre Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies The Keys to French Opera in the Nineteenth Century Hervé Lacombe, 2001-01-12 A lively history of French opera in its cultural and historical context by one of France's leading musicologists Going Abroad Christine Geoffroy, Richard Sibley, 2009-10-02 Going Abroad is a book not only for scholars academics and students who are interested in different approaches to mobility but also for non specialists who wish to explore and understand what lies behind the various forms of travel tourism and migration that are central to today's and no doubt tomorrow's globalized world If you are tempted by emigration enjoy being a tourist or just love the adventure of travel real or imaginary you can embark on a journey of discovery through time and across the continents to explore and reflect on diverse visions of mobility The practical problems and the differing states of mind experienced by past and present emigrants to France Spain Morocco Capri Latin America Canada and Australia the impact of immigration on the host communities and the reactions of turn of the century French immigrants to Britain offer contrasting and complementary perspectives Along with the real and symbolic meanings of the apparently mundane act of crossing the Channel stranger forms of travel are also explored Filipino sailors who are neither at home nor abroad backpacking across four continents the real and the fantasized exotic in nineteenth century orientalist art and the sanitized utopias of today's theme parks Within an interdisciplinary and a cross cultural framework the book explores the terminology concepts and methodology of a subject which has become the focus of curricula in many academic courses Exoticism in the Enlightenment George Sebastian Rousseau, Roy Porter, 1990 Strangers in Yemen David Malkiel, 2020-12-16 Strangers in Yemen is a study of travel to Yemen in the nineteenth century by Jews Christians and Muslims The travelers include a missionary artist scientist rabbi merchant adventurer and soldier The focus is on the encounter between people of different cultures and the chapters analyze the travelers' accounts to elucidate how strangers and locals perceived each other and how the experiences shaped their perceptions of themselves Cultural encounter is among the most important challenges of our time a time of global migration and instant communication Today as in the past history provides a valuable tool for illuminating the human experience and this scholarly work stimulates us to contemplate the challenge of cultural encounter for it affects us all Three Nineteenth-century French Writer/artists and the Maghreb Elwood Hartman, 1994 Gendering Orientalism Reina Lewis, 2013-06-17 In contrast to most cultural histories of imperialism which analyse Orientalist images of rather than by women Gendering Orientalism focuses on the contributions of women themselves Drawing on the little known work of Henriette Browne other lost women Orientalist artists and the literary works of George Eliot Reina Lewis challenges masculinist assumptions relating to the stability and homogeneity of the Orientalist gaze Gendering Orientalism argues that women did not have a straightforward access to an implicitly male position of western superiority Their relationship to the shifting terms of race nation and gender produced positions from which women writers and artists could articulate alternative representations of racial difference It is this different and often less degrading gaze on the Orientalized Other that is analysed in this book By revealing the extent of women's involvement in the popular field of visual Orientalism and highlighting the presence of Orientalist themes in the work of Browne Eliot and Charlotte Brontë Reina Lewis uncovers women's roles in imperial culture and discourse Gendering Orientalism will appeal to students lecturers and researchers in cultural studies literature art history women's studies and anthropology

The Fayum Landscape Claire J. Malleson, 2019-04-19 Located some one hundred kilometers southwest of Cairo the Fayum region has long been regarded as unique often described in terms that conjure up images of an idealized Garden of Eden In An Egyptian Landscape Claire Malleson takes a novel approach to the study of the region by exploring the ways in which people have through millennia perceived and engaged with the Fayum landscape Distinguishing between the experienced landscape of state and bureaucratic record and the imagined landscape of myth meaning and observers personal influences and expectations Malleson questions in detail where those perceptions come from She traces religious practices follows the tracks of myths and traditions and investigates the roots of stories found in texts from the pharaonic classical and Medieval Islamic periods She also reviews many more recent travel writings on the region from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries The work of each author is presented in its historical and cultural context and Malleson integrates what is known about ancient activities in the Fayum based on the archaeological evidence from the many monuments and ancient settlements that exist in the region Scholars and students of archaeology and landscape studies as well as general readers interested in Egypt's history and archaeology will find this book highly engaging and enlightening

Aššur is King! Aššur is King! Steven Winford Holloway, 2002 Through sustained analysis of texts and visual sources this volume traces the checkered career of Neo Assyrian religious interaction with subject polities of Western Asia through both punitive measures and calculated diplomatic patronage

Facts and Artefacts - Art in the Islamic World Annette Hagedorn, Avinoam Shalem, 2007-11-13 The scholarly search on the art of the object is of enduring interest and enjoys a new renaissance in the last few years This book mainly explores the art and craft of Islamic artefacts and presents to the reader a diverse range of approaches Despite this variety in which also artefacts of the pre Islamic period as well as orientalized European artefacts of the modern era are included there is an overarching theme the linking of the interpretation of objects and their specific aesthetics to textual sources and the aim of setting them in historical and artistic context In this impressive collection honouring the German scholar of Islamic art Jens Krüger on his 65th birthday Avinoam Shalem and Annette Hagedorn bring together contributions from a highly distinguished group of scholars of Asiatic Sasanian Islamic as well as European art history Unpublished artefacts and new interpretations are presented in this book

Women and Death Helen Fronius, Anna Linton, 2008 Identifies and analyzes thematizations of women and death from the past five centuries illuminating the present and recent past The theme of women and death is pervasive in the German culture of the past five centuries With the conviction that only an interdisciplinary approach can explore a typology as far reaching and significant as this and in accordance with the feminist tenet that images are accountable for norms this volume investigates how iconic representations of women and death came about and why they endure Traditionally representations of women as agents of death when they have been considered at all have been considered separately from women as victims as though there was no shared thematic ground Here familiar depictions of female victims are examined alongside the more unsettling spectacle of women as killers exposing cultural assumptions Essays explore among others the themes of virgin sacrifice and female infanticides Death and the Maiden in art female vampires in literature and women killers in the media Others compare cultural practices such as female mourning across historical contexts examining change and the reasons for it The authors judgments eschew the simplistic and programmatic contributing not just to current research in German literature but also to understanding of cultural history in general Contributors Stephanie Kn ll Ruth B Bottigheimer Anna Linton Bettina Bildhauer Mary Lindemann Helen Fronius Anna Richards J rgen Barkhoff Lawrence Kramer Kathrin Hoffmann Curtius Clare Bielby Gisela Ecker Anna Linton is Lecturer in German at Kings College London and Helen Fronius is an AHRC Research Fellow and College Lecturer at Exeter College Oxford

The Arabian Nights and Orientalism Tetsuo Nishio, Yuriko

Yamanaka, 2006-03-31 The Arabian Nights and Orientalism in Resonance was especially commissioned to celebrate the tercentenary of the first Western edition of The Arabian Nights This volume marries Western and Japanese perspectives on The Arabian Nights to provide a fascinating study of how this literary phenomenon brought about a unique and rich cross cultural fertilization The volume is divided into three sections the first part deals with narrative motifs and styles the second part examines the Nights from a comparative point of view and the third part unfolds the relationship between the written text and its pictorial representation Extensively illustrated throughout The Arabian Nights and Orientalism in Resonance will be of interest to scholars of the Middle East as well as anyone who has ever fallen under the spell of Scheherazade's stories

Soldiers of Uncertain Rank David Lambert, 2024-10-31 The West India Regiments were an anomalous presence in the British Army Raised in the late eighteenth century Caribbean in an act of military desperation their rank and file were overwhelmingly men of African descent initially enslaved As such the regiments held a unique but ambiguous place in the British Army and British Empire until their disbandment in 1927 Soldiers of Uncertain Rank brings together the approaches of cultural imperial and military history in new and illuminating ways to show how the image of these regiments really mattered This image shaped perceptions in the Caribbean societies in which they were raised and impacted on how they were deployed there and in Africa By examining the visual and textual representation of these soldiers this book uncovers a complex under explored and illuminating figure that sat at the intersection of nineteenth century debates about slavery and freedom racial difference Britishness savagery and civilisation military service and heroism Charisma and Commitment in South Asian History Roger D. Long, 2004 This collection includes an appreciation of Wolpert s life and writings and three of his previously unpublished essays In addition it considers such subjects as premodern cities in South Asia the Bene Israel in the Konkan propaganda and the Raj in World War II and linguistic nationalism and regional identity in Orissa
