The Other Side of the Mountain Ian W Shaw, 2020-02-01 In the early 1800s the Great Australian Unknown would be slowly revealed in part by formal government expeditions but also by runaway convicts little known and privately funded explorers and pastoralists seeking both knowledge of what lay beyond and land to occupy Through extensive research and with engaging storytelling The Other Side of the Mountain brings three of these men's stories together into a single enthralling narrative Ralph Entwistle runaway convict and bushranger who led a brief and briefly successful rebellion against the brutality of the convict system on the fringes of New South Wales western plains John Horrocks an English textiles magnate who brought most of his village from the north of England to Adelaide and beyond and who was the first to explore Australia's parched interior by camel a decision that cost him his life and Horace Wills a printer rebel overlander pastoralist and politician who gave up everything to push the frontier back in the far north of the continent While our history books recount the momentous advances made when Europeans spread across the continent the stories of Ralph Entwistle John Horrocks and Horace Wills are a reminder that those advances were almost always built on smaller endeavours often made by people whose names we rarely hear today but whose impacts were often of the greatest significance

The Other Side of the Mountain Ali Ahmad Jalali, Lester W. Grau, 1999 When the Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan in 1979 few experts believed that the fledgling Mujahideen resistance movement had a chance of withstanding the Soviet Army in 1989 realizing they were trapped in an unwinnable war where they were suffering death from a thousand cuts by an intractable enemy who had no hope of winning but fought on because it was the right thing to do the Soviet Union withdrew from Afghanistan Few studies of guerrilla warfare from the guerrilla s perspective exist To capture this perspective and the tactical experience of the Mujahideen the United States Marine Corps commissioned this study and sent two retired combat veterans to interview Mujahideen From those interviews has come this work which tells the guerillas story as interpreted by military professionals This is a book about death and survival adaptation and perseverance It provides an understanding of guerrilla field craft tactics techniques and procedures The Other Side of the Mountain Charlene Terrell,1997 The Other Side of the Mountain Michel Bernanos,1970 Science fiction roman The Other Side of the Mountain Thomas Merton,2010-09-14 With the election of a new Abbot at the Abbey of Gethsemani Merton enters a period of unprecedented freedom culminating in the opportunity to travel to California Alaska and finally the Far East journeys that offer him new possibilities and causes for contemplation In his last days at the Abbey of Gethsemani Merton continues to follow the tumultuous events of the sixties including the assassinations of Martin Luther King Jr and Robert Kennedy In Southeast Asia he meets the Dalai Lama and other Buddhist and Catholic monks and discovers a rare and rewarding kinship with each The final year is full of excitement and great potential for Merton making his accidental death in Bangkok at the age of fifth three all the more tragic On the Other Side of Death Mountain Douglass N.
