psychotherapists pastoral counselors at intermediate and advanced levels of clinical training and also for experienced pastoral counselors and psychotherapists in professional practice It harvests the great potential of postmodern sensibilities to help accompany and support individuals couples and families in recognizing and healing especially painful psychic wounds and or longstanding patterns of self defeating relationships to self and others Pamela Cooper White s widely praised work which has always integrated cutting edge notions from the social sciences into pastoral therapy here takes a distinctive and promising turn toward the relational and the theological Pastoral psychotherapy she argues needs to find its framework in a strongly relational idea of the person God and health Illustrated throughout by four key case studies Cooper White shows in Part 1 how multiplicity and relationality provide a dynamic and exciting way of viewing human potential and pain In Part 2 she unfolds the practical applications of this paradigm for a strongly empathic therapeutic relationship and process The Doctrine and Discipline of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church 2012 Discipline Codification Commission,2014-12-11 The Doctrine and Discipline of the AME Zion Church 2012 is the Book of Discipline for this 218 year old denomination Based upon the original tenets of Wesleyan theology and doctrine and under girded by its founders of African birth the churchs mission is to promote freedom and liberty to the lost and disenfranchised Giving Counsel Donald Capps,2001-11-01 For most ministers pastoral counseling is a part of daily ministry whether it is in an office counseling session or in a chance meeting with a parishioner outside the church Whatever the setting ministers are often called on to provide counsel and by virtue of their calling and training are expected to do so This how to guide for seminary students and ministers explores the role of the minister as counselor and provides a method for giving counsel Renowned pastoral care expert Donald Capps equips readers with basic knowledge and skills and helps them to create a framework to ensure that all conversations where counsel is given will be valuable and not harmful to the person involved Using a problem resolving approach Capps leads readers through How to Create a Listening Environment How to Construct a Conversation How to Think Systemically How to Interpret Stories How to Manage Boundaries Giving Counsel is the perfect resource for seminary students and ministers of all faiths whether you are beginning your study or looking for a single resource to serve your ministry The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Containing more than 300 articles covering the alphabetical entries P Sh this book also includes articles on significant topics ranging from Paul political theology and the Qur an to religious liberty salvation history and scholasticism Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven,1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today's society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one's own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today's societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model
