Journey Mura poses two central questions The first involves identity How is writing an exploration of who one is and one's place in the world Mura examines how the myriad identities in our changing contemporary canon have led to new challenges regarding both craft and pedagogy Here like Toni Morrison's Playing in the Dark or Jeff Chang's Who We Be: A Stranger's Journey breaks new ground in our understanding of the relationship between the issues of race literature and culture The book's second central question involves structure How does one tell a story Mura provides clear insightful narrative tools that any writer may use taking in techniques from fiction screenplays playwriting and myth Through this process Mura candidly explores the newly evolved aesthetic principles of memoir and how questions of identity occupy a central place in contemporary memoir
