The Short Story Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris

The Small Stuff of Roman Antiquity Emily Gowers, 2025-01-21 Why are the small and unimportant relics of Roman antiquity often the most enduring in both material form and our affections Through close encounters with minor things such as insects brief lives quibbles irritants and jokes Emily Gowers provocatively argues that much of what the Romans dismissed as superfluous or peripheral in fact took up immense imaginative space There is much to learn from what didn't or shouldn't matter It was often through the small stuff that the Romans most acutely probed and challenged their society's overarching values and priorities and its sense of proportion and justice By marking the spots where the apparently pointless becomes significant this book radically adjusts our understanding of the Romans and their world as well as our own minor feelings and intimate preoccupations
