Melosi, Joseph A. Pratt, 2007-07-01 Houston's meteoric rise from a bayou trading post to the world's leading oil supplier owes much to its geography geology and climate the large natural port of Galveston Bay the lush subtropical vegetation the abundance of natural resources But the attributes that have made it attractive for industry energy and urban development have also made it particularly susceptible to a variety of environmental problems Energy Metropolis presents a comprehensive history of the development of Houston examining the factors that have facilitated unprecedented growth and the environmental cost of that development The landmark Spindletop strike of 1901 made inexpensive high grade Texas oil the fuel of choice for ships industry and the infant automobile industry Literally overnight oil wells sprang up around Houston In 1914 the opening of the Houston Ship Channel connected the city to the Gulf of Mexico and international trade markets Oil refineries sprouted up and down the channel and the petroleum products industry exploded By the 1920s Houston also became a leading producer of natural gas and the economic opportunities and ancillary industries created by the new energy trade led to a population boom By the end of the twentieth century Houston had become the fourth largest city in America Houston's expansion came at a price however Air water and land pollution reached hazardous levels as legislators turned a blind eye Frequent flooding of altered waterways deforestation hurricanes the energy demands of an air conditioned lifestyle increased automobile traffic exponential population growth and an ever expanding metropolitan area all escalated the need for massive infrastructure improvements The experts in Energy Metropolis examine the steps Houston has taken to overcome laissez faire politics indiscriminate expansion and infrastructural overload What emerges is a profound analysis of the environmental consequences of large scale energy production and unchecked growth Murder Ridge Bev Pettersen,2025-09-26 Miles from civilization Minutes from death From USA Today Bestselling Author Bev Pettersen comes another heart pounding K9 mystery that will keep you guessing until the final page Private investigator Nikki Drake thought she was heading to California s remote Marble Mountains for a simple insurance claim investigating a researcher s accidental death But when she and her German Shepherd partner Gunner join an isolated hunting expedition they discover the mountains harbor far more dangerous secrets than anyone imagined As Nikki digs deeper she uncovers a deadly conspiracy involving illegal mining environmental destruction and killers willing to eliminate anyone who threatens their million dollar operation Trapped in the wilderness with murderers among the hunting party Nikki must rely on Gunner s protective instincts and her own hard won investigative skills to stay alive But in terrain where a single misstep can be fatal and trust is a luxury she can t afford even their powerful partnership may not be enough With time running out and nowhere to run Nikki faces her most terrifying case yet In these mountains the predators walk on two legs And they re hunting her

The Ecology of American Noir Katrina Younes,2025-04-07 This volume investigates the relationship between the conventions of noir fiction and film and its sub types in relation to environmental crises Dr Younes addresses questions that not only allow readers to re read early hardboiled literature and neo noir films but also help identify a new sub genre of noir and develop an ecocritical methodology eco noir This text traces the development of strategies of mapping urban blight and environmental deterioration in classic hardboiled fiction of the 1940s neo noir films of the 1970s and eco noir texts of the post millennial period Introducing the concept of eco noir as both a sub genre and fictional form as well as a methodology the volume develops a new way of understanding the relationship between noir and climate fiction texts Through a close reading of hardboiled neo noir and eco noir texts including those by Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Robert Towne Kim Stanley Robinson and Jeff VanderMeer it asks and addresses the question how does each sub genre of noir map the noir atmosphere of the private investigator s natural setting in terms of environmental toxicity The Ecology of American Noir contributes to critical conversations in both noir and ecocritical scholarship making clear how a new understanding of noir as defined through environmental and atmospheric conditions invites readers viewers and scholars of the genre to generate meaningful dialogues about our decaying and deteriorating environment Children's Book Review Index Dana Ferguson,2004-09-03
