

«La ficción requiere revelaciones que se intentan a través de la página. A menudo se cuentan de otros. Pero en este caso se cuenta de uno que de nosotros... sólo la crítica de una amistad a través de los años».

La sombra de Naipaul es el detallado relato del principio, desarrollo y final de la amistad entre el autor y el premio Nobel de Literatura en 1971, S. Naipaul. Theroux y Naipaul se conocieron en Uganda en 1966, cuando el primero tenía veintinueve años y era profesor en la Universidad de Makerere, y Naipaul ya era un escritor importante, autor de Una casa para Mr. Biswas. Tras el tiempo compartido en Jamaica, la relación entre ambos autores —en la que Theroux era el joven aprendiz y Naipaul el maestro— se convirtió en una profunda amistad que perduró hasta la muerte de los escritores veinte años y a lo largo de los cinco continentes. Alimentado por una continua correspondencia, cartas y llamadas telefónicas, el vínculo de lealtad entre estos dos escritores finaliza abruptamente en 1996, cuando Theroux descubre que su libro La sombra de Naipaul y dedicado por él a su amigo, mientras estaban a la venta en una librería de Nueva York. Como única respuesta, Naipaul quemó todos los papeles, y Theroux decidió escribir este libro. Pero La sombra de Naipaul va más allá de la novela y la crónica. Theroux escribe por la herida y, desde el dolor, consigue poner de manifiesto el complejo mecanismo que existe en toda amistad, además del mecanismo de manipulación, cobardía y recato ocultos que corren como un hilo, todo un humano.

«Un libro que atrapa... Fascina al lector y tiene una fuerza analítica memorable».

Philip Brown, Mail on Sunday

«Un libro fascinante, revelador, inquietante y desconcertante».

Jeremy Gorman, Financial Times
