Some Assembly Required Poems:

Some Assembly Required George Bradley, 2021-04-21 George Bradley whose previous work has drawn praise from James Merrill and Harold Bloom here meditates on contemporary culture on the natural world and the world imagined and on the life of the poet Whether he is standing in line at the SuperSave where tabloids beckon or contemplating the change of seasons in a classic sonnet sequence Bradley juxtaposes the sublime workings of the mind with the mundane static that surrounds it What he finds in this conjunction is a surprising beauty a uniquely contemporary formal music and often a curative dose of humor Even verse itself is not exempt from his clarifying view as he proves in How I Got in the Business a wild ride through several sorts of commerce including the poetry trade Throughout Some Assembly Required Bradley savors both the riveting accident of everyday life and the long view afforded by art in poetry that is taut witty and dynamic
