Some Ladies In My Life:

Rose: My Life in Service to Lady Astor Rosina Harrison, 2011-12-27 In 1928 Rosina Harrison arrived at the illustrious household of the Astor family to take up her new position as personal maid to the infamously temperamental Lady Nancy Astor who sat in Parliament entertained royalty and traveled the world She is not a lady as you would understand a lady was the butler's ominous warning But what no one expected was that the iron-willed Lady Astor was about to meet her match in the no-nonsense whip-smart girl from the country For 35 years from the parties thrown for royalty and trips across the globe to the air raids during WWII Rose was by Lady Astor's side and behind the scenes keeping everything running smoothly In charge of everything from the clothes and furs to the baggage to the priceless diamond sparklers Rose was closer to Lady Astor than anyone else In her decades of service she received one 5 raise but she traveled the world in style and retired with a lifetime's worth of stories Like Gosford Park and Downton Abbey ROSE is a captivating insight into the great wealth upstairs and the endless work downstairs but it is also the story of an unlikely decades-long friendship that grew between Her Ladyship and her spirited Yorkshire maid

A Tribute to 101 Incredible Women of Distinction Who Influenced My Life From My House to the White House M. Joyce Dickerson, 2010-06-29 Originally this book was centered on identifying only one hundred women until Mrs Michelle Obama became the first African American First Lady thus it became apparent that she had to be added to this list thereby she became the one hundred and one most influential women in my life I can truly begin and end appropriately when I refer to the women who had a profound effect on me and my life extends from my little white house on a dirt road in Bulloch County Georgia to the White House located at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue Washington DC I am not sure just how many of the readers will receive my reference to scripture as I will often refer to but I want to start with a quote give honor to where honor is due and tribute to where tribute is due These one hundred and one women stories and lives have certainly influenced me guided me taught me and help to prepare me to live and have a wholesome and wealthy life whereby it has contributed to my entire wellness Wholeness wealth and wellness come in a variety of ways however often times they are not easily recognized because they are not in a materialistic appearance which can be touched or perceived It is now my esteemed pleasure to introduce you to the women of honor who contributed too much to me I was able to look beyond my economic social financial circumstances into a new realm of endless possibilities

My Life in Art Konstantin Stanislavski, 2018-05-08 Konstantin Stanislavski was a Russian director who transformed theatre in the West with his contributions to the birth of Realist theatre and his unprecedented approach to teaching acting. He lived through extraordinary times and his unique contribution to the arts still endures in the twenty-first century. He established the Moscow Art Theatre in 1898 with among other plays the premiere of Chekhov's The Seagull. He also survived revolutions, lost his fortune, found wide fame in America and lived in internal exile under Stalin's Soviet Union. Before writing his classic manual on acting, Stanislavski began writing an autobiography that he hoped would both chronicle his rich and tumultuous life and serve as a justification of his aesthetic philosophy. But when the project grew to impossible lengths, his publisher Little Brown insisted on many cuts and changes to keep it to its deadline and to a manageable length. The result was a version published in English in 1924 which Stanislavski hated and completely revised for a Soviet edition that came out in 1926. Now for the first time, translator Jean Benedetti brings us Stanislavski's complete unabridged autobiography as the author himself wanted it from the re-edited 1926 version. The text in clear and lively English is supplemented by a wealth of photos and illustrations many previously unpublished.

My Life and Recollections Grantley Fitzhardinge Berkeley, 1866

Reflections on My Life Richard Orme Wilberforce Baron Wilberforce, 2003 The Story of My Life \(Complete\)

Augustus John Cuthbert Hare, 2020-09-28 IN 1727 the year of George the First's death Miss Grace Naylor of Hurstmonceaux though she was beloved, charming and beautiful, died very mysteriously in her twenty-first year in the immense and weird old castle of which she had been the heiress. She was affirmed to have been starved by her former governess who lived alone with her but the fact was never proved. Her property passed to her first cousin Francis Hare, son of her aunt Bethaia, who forthwith assumed the name of Naylor. The new owner of Hurstmonceaux was the only child of the first marriage of that Francis Hare who through the influence first of the Duke of Marlborough by whose side then a chaplain he had ridden on the battlefields of Blenheim and Ramillies and afterwards of his family connections the Pelhams and Walpoles rose to become one of the richest and most popular pluralists of his age. Yet he had to be contented at last with the bishoprics of St Asaph and Chichester with each of which he held the Deanery of St Paul's the Archbishopric of Canterbury having twice just escaped him. The Bishop's eldest son Francis was un-facheux d tail de notre famille as the grandfather of Madame de Maintenon said of his son. He died after a life of the wildest dissipation without leaving any children by his wife Carlotta Alston who was his stepmother's sister. So the property of Hurstmonceaux went to his half brother Robert, son of the Bishop's second marriage with Mary Margaret Alston, heiress of the Vatche in Buckinghamshire and of several other places besides. Sir Robert Walpole had been the godfather of Robert Hare Naylor and presented him with a valuable sinecure office as a christening present and he further made the Bishop urge the Church as the profession in which father and godfather could best aid the boy's advancement. Accordingly Robert took orders, obtained a living and was made a Canon of Winchester. While he was still very young his father had further secured his fortunes by marrying him to the heiress who lived nearest to his mother's property of the Vatche and by the beautiful Sarah Selman daughter of the owner of Chalfont St Peter's and sister of Mrs Lefevre he had two sons Francis and Robert and an only daughter Anna Maria afterwards Mrs Bulkeley In the zenith of her youth and loveliness however Sarah Hare died very suddenly from eating ices when overheated at a ball and soon afterwards Robert married a second wife the rich Henrietta Henckel who pulled down Hurstmonceaux Castle She did this because she was jealous of the sons of her predecessor and wished to build a large new house which she persuaded her husband to settle upon her own children who were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age But she was justly punished for when Robert Hare died it was discovered that the great house which Wyatt had built for Mrs Hare and which is now known as Hurstmonceaux Place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to Francis Hare Naylor son of Miss Selman Mrs Henckel Hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to Hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening wringing her hands and saying Who could have done such a wicked thing oh who could have done such a wicked thing as to pull down this beautiful old place Then her daughters Caroline and Marianne walking beside her would say Oh dear mamma it was you who did it it was you yourself who did it you know and she would despairingly resume Oh no that is impossible it could not have been me I could not have done such a wicked thing it could not have been me that did it My cousin Marcus Hare had at Abbots Kerswell a picture of Mrs Henckel Hare which was always surrounded with crape bows

My Life and Lens Capt. Robert L. Bowen,2017-03-20 Journalists possess critical responsibilities one is simply to inform another is to explain As a military photojournalist during the Vietnam Era Bob Bowen has captured visually with his camera and explained eloquently with his written words the horrors and the honorable service of that period In his new book My Life and Lens Bowen articulates not only high action combat but the artful subtleties and tactics of warfare He writes so well that the reader is pulled into the stories as if there in person It is one thing to provide facts to America s cumulative history it s another to display the facts through personal experiences One will learn through reading this memoir that the life of a journalist in a war zone could be short lived It is dangerous work but when successful the work informs This is what makes Bowen s book such a compelling read This memoir is an excellent pictorial and literary contribution not only to our nation's history but in the recognition of those who honorably participated in that unpopular conflict. Respect is demonstrated to the families of the brave American heroes of this long ago era by Bob Bowen's memorializing them in his book. Worth Earlwood Norman Jr. retired account executive EDS Corporation author of two biographies James Solomon Russell Former Slave Pioneer Educator and Episcopal Evangelist McFarland Publishing 2012 William Jelks Cabaniss Jr. Crossing Lines in His Business Political and Diplomatic Life Archdeacon Books 2014 and one memoir Six Bits USMC 1962-1963 My Years in USMC Bands 1962-1966 Kindle eBook. I predict this is a great book by Bob Bowen who is writing about his own life during the Vietnam War. Bob is an expert photographer and was a war correspondent and a fine writer. This job was dangerous. This book could really take off and be a great success. I recommend it to anyone interested in the Vietnam War. The war was a harrowing experience for the men involved and they have never been given proper credit for their bravery. Don Gilmore author Eyewitness Vietnam. The images you captured of our Marines in Vietnam are unequalled. Your book will be a smash hit. Franklin Cox author Lullabies for Lieutenants. My friend Bob Bowen has been a member of The American Legion for more than four decades during which time he has been totally devoted to our country, our veterans and their families. This memoir details his insights not only into war and coming home but also into the people who are Americans. His life is proof that when most veterans take off their uniforms they don't quit their service to the nation. My Life and Lens is the inspiring story of how one Marine is still serving America. Daniel S. Wheeler National Adjutant The American Legion.
