Some Love Some Pain Sometime:

Some Love, Some Pain, Sometime J. California Cooper, 1996 10 short stories Some Love, Some Pain, Sometime J. California Cooper, 1996-09-01 Whether through her stories or her legendary readings J California Cooper has an uncanny ability to reach out to readers like an old and dear friend Her characters are plain spoken and direct simple people for whom life despite its ever present struggles is always worth the journey In Some Love Some Pain Sometime Cooper's characteristic themes of romance heartbreak struggle and faith resonate We meet Darlin a self proclaimed femme fatale who uses her wiles to try to find a husband MLee whose life seems to be coming to an end at the age of forty until she decides to set out and see if she can make a new life for herself Kissy and Buddy both trying and failing to find them until they finally meet each other and Aberdeen whose daughter Uniqua shows her how to educate herself and move up in the world These characters and others offer inspiration laughter instruction and pure enjoyment in what is one of J California Cooper's finest story collections

Some Soul to Keep J. California Cooper, 1987 J California Cooper writes with a transparent clarity and such exuberant energy that her characters leap off the page bursting with stories they've got to tell stories of simple people stories of families and fate of love and marriage of death and the triumph of the human spirit Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk's Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence Some People, Some Other Place J. California Cooper, 2007-12-18 For generations Eula Too's family has been making a journey North year after year step by painful step and she's determined to be the one to make it all the way to Chicago In and out of school taking care of her fourteen brothers and sisters she can see no way out But when a new family burden threatens to overwhelm her she at last leaves for the city only to find that her life gets even tougher Ranging from the Deep South at the turn of the century to a diverse contemporary town filled with people striving for a better life Some People Some Other Place is J California Cooper at her irresistible surprising best Homemade Love J. California Cooper, 1986 J California Cooper is the author of novels six collections of stories and seventeen plays Her book Homemade Love was the winner of the American Book Award in 1989 and she has been honored as the Black Playwright of the Year She has also received the James Baldwin Writing Award and the Literary Lion Award from the American Library Association She lived in California until her death in 2014 Catch a Falling Heart J. California Cooper, 2022-10-11 In this short story from J California Cooper's Wild Stars Seeking Midnight Suns a loving friend constructs a slyly arranged marriage between two perfectly matched lonely hearts fragile Harriet who shakes when she's excited and puts others' needs above her own and stoic hardworking Issy Told with Cooper's signature warm and conversational wit this is a heartrendingly human tale of love and companionship A Vintage Short The Wake of the Wind J. California Cooper, 1999-12-28 A dramatic and thought provoking novel of one family's triumph in the face of the hardships and challenges of the post Civil War South The Wake of the Wind J California Cooper's third novel is her most penetrating look yet at the challenges that generations of African Americans have had to overcome in order to carve out a home for themselves and their families Set in Texas in the waning years of the Civil War the novel tells the dramatic story of a remarkable heroine Lilee and her husband Mor When Emancipation finally comes to Texas Mor Lilee and the extended family they create from other slaves who are also looking for a home and a future set out in search of a piece of land they can call their own In the face of constant threats they manage not only to survive but to succeed their crops grow their children thrive they educate themselves and others Lilee and Mor pass their intelligence determination and talents along to their children the next generation to surge forward At once tragic and triumphant this is an epic story that captures with extraordinary authenticity the most important struggle of the last hundred years      The Columbia Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction Darryl Dickson-Carr, 2005-12-06 In both the literal and metaphorical senses it seemed as if 1970s America was running out of gas The decade not only witnessed long lines at gas stations but a citizenry that had grown weary and disillusioned High unemployment runaway inflation and the energy crisis caused in part by U S dependence on Arab oil characterized an increasingly bleak economic situation As Edward D Berkowitz demonstrates the end of the postwar economic boom Watergate and defeat in Vietnam led to an unraveling of the national consensus During the decade ideas about the United States how it should be governed and how its economy should be managed changed dramatically Berkowitz argues that the postwar faith in sweeping social programs and a global U S mission was replaced by a more skeptical attitude about government's ability to positively affect society From Woody Allen to Watergate from the decline of the steel industry to the rise of Bill Gates and from Saturday Night Fever to the Sunday morning fervor of evangelical preachers Berkowitz captures the history tone and spirit of the seventies He explores the decade's major political events and movements including the rise and fall of détente congressional reform changes in healthcare policies and the hostage crisis in Iran The seventies also gave birth to several social movements and the rights revolution in which women gays and lesbians and people with disabilities all successfully fought for greater legal and social recognition At the same time reaction to these social movements as well as the issue of abortion introduced a new facet into American political life the rise of powerful politically conservative religious organizations and activists Berkowitz also considers important shifts in American popular culture recounting the creative renaissance in American film as well as the birth of the Hollywood blockbuster He discusses how television programs such as All in the Family and Charlie's Angels offered Americans both a reflection of and an escape from the problems gripping the country      Ebony , 1995-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation s creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential In Search of Satisfaction J. California Cooper,2010-12-29 With In Search of Satisfaction Cooper gracefully portrays men and women some good and others wickedly twisted caught in their individual thickets of want and need on a once grand plantation In Yoville a legal town ship founded by the very rich for their own personal use a freed slave named Josephus fathers two daughters Ruth and Yinyang by two different women His desire to give Yinyang and himself money and opportunities oozes through the family like an elixir In seeking the legacy left by their father Ruth and Yinyang pull each other their families and their Yoville neighbors into a vortex of ever powerful emotion

Wild Stars Seeking Midnight Suns J. California Cooper,2007-12-18 J California Cooper s irresistible collection of new stories explores the universal themes of romance family and the hopes that propel people s dreams In As Time Goes By a young woman singlemindedly pursues material wealth only to suffer from an empty heart Catch a Falling Heart tells of a slyly arranged marriage and The Eye of the Beholder portrays a plain girl s search for love and her own brand of freedom Wise earthy and intimate these stories are moving parables of the human need to seek some sort of satisfaction just as a wild star seeks a midnight sun Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers Yolanda Williams Page,2007-01-30 African American women writers published extensively during the Harlem Renaissance and have been extraordinarily prolific since the 1970s This book surveys the world of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars The Encyclopedia covers established contemporary authors such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor along with a range of neglected and emerging figures Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography a discussion of major works a survey of the author s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Literature students will value this book for its exploration of African American literature while social studies students will appreciate its examination of social issues through literature African American women writers have made an enormous contribution to our culture Many of these authors wrote during the Harlem Renaissance a particularly vital time in African American arts and letters while others have been especially active since the 1970s an era in which works by African American women are adapted into films and are widely read in book clubs Literature by African American women is important for its aesthetic qualities and it also illuminates the social issues which these authors have confronted This book conveniently surveys the lives and works of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 African American women novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars Some of these figures such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor are among the most popular authors writing today while others have been largely neglected or are recently emerging Each entry provides a biography a discussion of major works a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Students and general readers will welcome this guide to the rich achievement of African American women Literature students will value its exploration of the works of these writers while social studies students will appreciate its examination of the social issues these women confront in their works

Twentieth-century American Western Writers Richard H. Cracroft,1999 Essays on authors of American Western literature suggesting the enormous diversity of North America s Western peoples visions and possibilities These writers share a common awe of the immensity of the West while also exhibiting a wide range of individual cultural and ethical literary responses to the nature and meaning of the Western experience Includes discussion of the transformation of the West after World War II and the cultural shock of the late 1960s

The Matter Is Life J. California Cooper,2011-02-02 A fourth collection of stories by the award winning author San Francisco Review of Books ,1995 Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown,2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies Life Is Short But Wide J. California Cooper, 2010-04-06 An irresistible story of faith and perseverance Life Is Short But Wide follows two families as they prove that no matter who you are or what you do you are never too old to chase your dreams Like the small towns J California Cooper has so vividly portrayed in her previous novels Wideland Oklahoma is home to ordinary Americans with big hearts Among them are newlyweds Irene and Val who graciously allow their neighbors Bertha and Joseph to build a house on their land Together the couples have three daughters all who struggle to find love and success in the changing world But although the years may bring hardship and heartache they also teach the importance of living one's life boldly and squeezing out every possible moment of joy Guide Me Home Attica Locke, 2024-09-03 The case of a missing Black college student who has disappeared from her all white sorority pulls Darren out of an early retirement the third and final novel in the timely and evocative NPR Highway 59 trilogy from Edgar Award winning New York Times Bestselling author Attica Locke Texas Ranger Darren Mathews isn't sure he's been a good cop but believes he's got a shot at being a good man if he manages to dodge the potential indictment hanging over his head and if he from here on out pledges allegiance to the truth It's a virtue the country appears to have wholly lost its grip on but one Darren sees as his salvation He is in the midst of remaking his life with the woman he loves hoping for the peace of country living at his beloved farmhouse when he is visited by someone who couldn't hold the truth on her tongue if it was dipped in sugar a woman who's always been bent of tearing his life apart His mother Armed with a tall tale about a missing Black college student Sera whose white sorority sisters insist she isn't missing at all Darren must decide if his can trust his mother is telling the truth and what her ulterior motive may be and what if that motive has to do with a grand jury deciding his fate Darren gets his hooks into the investigation along the way discovering things about Sera's family and her hometown that are odd at best vaguely sinister at worst Hamstrung by local law enforcement and the Texas Rangers who likewise doubt the account of a missing girl if Darren wants answers he'll need help from the person whom he swore to never trust again his mother In this emotionally stirring conclusion to the singular Highway 59 series Darren reckons with his life's purpose as he's forced to choose between his own peace and the higher call to do good
