Catholic Church. Congregatio pro Doctrina Fidei,1992 Yves Congar's Vision of the Church in a World of Unbelief Gabriel Flynn,2017-03-02 Yves Congar 1904 1995 was one of the chief architects of a remarkable renewal in Roman Catholic ecclesiology in the twentieth century His vision for ecclesial renewal led to a profound transformation of the Roman Catholic Church its relationship with other churches and the world This book considers the contribution made by Congar to that transformation Situating Congar s ecclesiology in the context of his whole theology the book presents for the first time a comprehensive study of two related aspects of Congar s thought unbelief and the notion of total ecclesiology Dr Flynn shows how unbelief provides the common inspiration for Congar s thought on the Church and constitutes the raison d'être for his entire programme of ecclesial reform at the Second Vatican Council This study demonstrates how Congar s total ecclesiology contributes to the restoration of unity and helps to redress unbelief Congar s vision for the future and his programme for ecclesial renewal centering on a church committed both to the preservation of its heritage and an openness to true reform is shown to be still pertinent to the churches in the third millennium a point accented by Pierre Marie Gy OP in his Preface to the work Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs,2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communiality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe

Purification of Memory Ambrose Mong,2015-06-25 Although its various bodies boast a combined total of at least 300 million members the Eastern Orthodox Church is widely perceived among members of other denominations to be an exotic branch of the faith often shrouded in mysticism and misunderstandingthat has been exacerbated by the longstanding Eastern Western split In Purification of Memory Ambrose Mong casts light on the true nature of Orthodox theology illuminating the thinking of eight distinguished modern Orthodox theologians who have madeimportant contributions on topics as ecclesiology ecumenism Christology and Mariology Approaching the work of John

Meyendorff Nicholas Afanasiev John Zizioulas Georges Florovsky Sergius Bulgakov Vladimir Lossky Nicolas Berdyaev and Jaroslav Pelikan from an ecumenical standpoint Mong deftly draws comparisons with the theology of their Roman Catholic counterparts to reveal points on which the two traditions have much more in common than either side will always admit The author interweaves these comparisons with a fascinating exposition of the history of the schism between the Eastern and Western Churches to demonstrate decisively that in spite of the bitter mistrust dividing them they share a common heritage which could and should serve as a basis for reunification Before old wounds can mend however a healing process of forgetting characterized by Pope John Paul II as a purification of memory must take place to clear the path towards a long awaited return to unity
